James McDonald, seeing what the Thompson estate were doing on the other side of the street, has put a fresh coat of paint on the Waldo meat market block.

The opposition aldermen in Waukegan have a cinch on the council. They just put their Thomas Jefferson heads together and stay away. Result: no quorum and the mayor and others adjourn, and so it goes. Big city gov'ment that.

We understand Principal Wilson of the High school has already examined about 40 candidates for admission next year. They come from all parts of Deerfield, from Ravinia to Sweeneyville. This looks as though our young people are bound to have an education. Good for the boys and girls.

Miss Adele Everett was present at the Commencement exercises of the Boston School of Technology, where her brother Frank graduated with honor. Frank Everett then accompanied his sister to New York, where she will embark for England to spend the summer. Frank will return to the Park in about a week.

Miss Nellie Holliday is the guest of the Misses Alford this week.

If you have anything you wish to find out, sell or buy don't put a notice in the Post office, where few people notice it, but insert it in the News want column, where everybody in this city and its environments will read it.

COMMUNICATION.

EDITOR OF THE NEWS:

In your issue of the 4th inst, you call attention to the fact that in the matter of a change of venue in justice courts, the famous Justice act of 1895 provides that either the party or his attorney may take a change. As far as my experience goes, it is the attorney, who invariably takes the change and all of it. SQUIB.
