One year ago Monday June 14th. Captain O. H. Morgan's son William, died in Asheville, N. C.

One year ago last Friday June 11, we ate the first green peas, Notts excelsior, from our own garden. Note the difference in the seasons.

Judge Hibbard may be found the first days of the week at Raffin & Baker's office: Fridays and Saturdays he will be at home weeding his garden.

Mrs. Henry Wade Rogers of Evanston, addressed the King's Daughters at the academy, June 9th, and so ably as to awaken a much keener interest even than has heretofore been taken in such work.

W. J. Bryan has been down east lecturing on the beauty of silver. That's all very good, as far as it goes, but what we want is not the beauty but the silver itself. Give us some of that and we will be content.

Policeman Kline attached two wheels on the sidewalk last week. As they were children on tandems up toward Highwood, they were let off by paying a fine with the assurance that the next time it would be at least $3 and costs.

A friend of ours east loaned $2000 on a mortgage on a farm sold at $4,400 thirty years ago. He has recently foreclosed for principal and interest and now is trying to sell the farm for $1000. That's one reason why so many young men come west.

That was a mistake last week about Driscoll doing the tinwork on the Waldo house. That hustling New Yorker, D. C. Purdy did it, and he is putting in one of his "Triumph" furnaces toward Glencoe this week. D. A. Driscoll is doing the furnace work at Waldo's.

City Marshal Sheahan has been making it lively for violators of the bicycle ordinance. He has the names of several parties who have been taking things in a go-as-you-please kind of a way. He is no respecter of persons or sexes and now they seem to understand that if they do so some more they will have to call at the cap'n's office.

Colonel Bradbury of the Waukegan Patriot, is calling on the Democratic mayor to appoint Democrats to office. Tut, tut, colonel; call on him to appoint the best men, and let your party politics go to the dogs; They have no place in municipal affairs. Come to the Park and learn to do things right.
