Something over 500 hungry wheelmen got refreshment "for man and beast" in the Park hotels and restaurants Sunday last.

A large prize awaits the woman whose husband never told her how his mother used to cook and wonders she can't cook "like mother did."

City Attorney Smoot has gone to one of the numerous lakes of the northwest on a fishing tour to be back next week Monday. We would name the lake but we don't want all his old neighbors wiring him to send them a few fish.

Nine millions of people in London this week attending the Diamond Jubilee. At least half a million Americans, paying homage to the grandest type of womanhood on the globe. Don't talk about the age of chivalry being past.

An Englishman has written a book about America, and here is some of the titles of his chapters: The Commuter, Bryan and his Friends, Phil D. Armour, Mark Hanna, Interview with McKinley, Quick Lunch out West, Ice Water Habit, Sleeping Car, Depravity of Senator Hill, etc.

There has been quite a tame squirrel the last three years with headquarters in an old tree at Ravinook. This week he has taken to coming into the poultry yard eating the oatmeal porridge with the chickens. He knows the value of the Scotch diet for brains.

We have not seen C. C. Yoe's dog but we have heard his bark, and it is one of the most attractive and inspiring canine voices we have heard for a long time. He barks as though he had some sense, good lungs and a profound respect for the comfort and nerves of his owner's neighbors.

Have you noticed that every one of the trees in the Sampson Parkway down Central avenue east, is in leaf and promises well? Two or three at least, ought to die just for the fun of the thing, but they don't. Of course the real test will come a year or two later, but that is a splendid record.

A good sensible woman, of whom there are several in the city, telephoned us the other day to send her the News regularly. She found she could not keep in the swim without it, and in that all important matter they must not be left in the rear. There are still a few families who are finding themselves stranded on the sands of the social beach and don't seem to know what is the matter. Take the News and all these perplexing problems will be settled. Only $1.00 a year, cash in advance.
