Red Men's Picnic at Northwestern Grove, Thursday, July 15th. Fort Sheridan Orchestra and band in attendance.

An interesting and valuable piece of equipment for the home and store these summer months is a Kuersten filter. C. A. Kuist is selling them at a very low figure.

Col. M. P. Miller, 3d U. S. Artillery, wife and daughter and Lieut. Lawrence S. Miller of the artillery, were guests of Dr. and Mrs. Haskins on July 4th and 5th.

We regret to learn that several of our school teachers have gone to Topeka, Kansas, for their vacation. A deadly cyclone wrought great damage nearby a few years ago and will probably strike the city itself this season. Hence we think none of our citizens will journey thither this summer.

One of the denizens of Ravinook who covets sleep told little John the night before the glorious Fourth he would give him a "quarter" if he would not get up and begin to celebrate before 7 o'clock. That was a big strain on John's patriotism—for the big heart in his little boyish body beat strong for freedom's holy cause—but he agreed, for he had a manly boy's regard for the wishes of so good a friend as the temporary resident across the way. But when 7 a. m. came, with it came the whiz, rat-rat-rat of the endless fire-cracker chain, boom and bang all the livelong day, and so, like the man of our generation, John Brown's soul goes marching on.
