LOCAL ITEMS.

It seems the News was in error in saying Mr. Mason was interested in the bicycle land scheme at Highwood for he informs us he is not: he makes the wheels and sells them to the Highwood parties just as he does to other dealers and that is all.

Rev. E. B. Heathcote has been appointed assistant chaplain at the Railroad Men's Home.

Dr. Frank M. Ingalls and wife go to Attica, Ind., tomorrow for a week or so at the celebrated mud springs.

Ross Fletcher tried his hand on Harry Mills' recalcitrant mule one day this week and the quadruped soon knew who held the ribbons.

The Chicago Telephone company have just issued a new supplement with half a dozen or more new names of 'phones installed in this city. The phone and the News just puts this town in the front rank of modern cities and a Hibbard is the general manager of the one and the editor of the other. Hence, Shakespeare says "What's in a name?"

In the Waukegan contest for the most popular young lady clerk, for a trip to Niagara Falls and return with $10 for expenses, we notice with pleasure the favor shown Miss Josephine Bilharz, formerly with Steele & Fox, we think. She is a fine young lady and an ideal clerk; prompt, intelligent and accurate.
She is a sister of our Mr. Bilharz, the harness maker. We hope she will win for she is worthy.

J. S. Townshend, president of the Mutual Security Building and Loan association of Chicago and family spent the Sunday with N. O. Moon of Glenmore, at the north end of town. He is greatly pleased with the Park, and we think, if "judiciously managed" could be made a permanent resident. He would make a good citizen; he pays his bills and would pay taxes, too, for he would have a choice home.

Three prisoners tried to break jail in Waukegan Tuesday night. One of them was Andereck, sent up by Judge Hibbard. They only had a pair of broken scissors to start with, it is said, and were digging through the outside wall when another prisoner yelled and they were discovered.
How is our county jail run anyhow?
This is the second attempt where prisoners get out of those steel cells and cage.

We made some mistakes in the figures on Ravine Lodge. The truss bridge over the ravine is 132 instead of 70 feet. The ravine is 32 feet deep under the bridge and soon drops away to 60 and 70 feet. There are nine acres in the property by actual measurement. It is not a public park, but private property, and not a place for a rabble or picnic, but quiet, well-bred, orderly people are always welcome to look over the grounds.
