CITY BREVITIES.

Capt. O. H. Morgan left yesterday for England, where he will meet Mrs. Morgan.

Miss Ogilvy went to Chicago today to spend the Sunday with Mrs. and Miss Leach.

John Braemer, superintendent of construction for the Electric Light company, is sick.

F. A. Burgess' family spent a few days with Mrs. James McDonald, returning home today.

Mrs. H. H. Thoren and children returned last Saturday from Streator after several weeks' absence.

Rev. Dr. Greene pastor of the Baptist church in Evanston, was the guest of Pastor Gould yesterday.

Miss Ida Rudolph came home Saturday after a week spent pleasantly with relatives at Libertyville.

Bicycle Purdy says he has one new ladies' wheel and several tandems to rent to reliable parties only.

Mrs. D. H. Murphy of Highwood has typhoid fever, a fact which emphasizes Alderman Fritsch's demand for sewerage up there. She is under treatment of Dr. E. B. Weston, our old-time physician.

Earl Purdy starts for Philadelphia Monday next to attend the national L. A. W. meet. He will inspect Washington on his way home, and if he finds prosperity lying around loose bring it home.

Colonel H. P. Davidson returns tonight from a week's trip in Indiana. He is going to see if he can make what Petroleum V. Nasby styled "malicious ossifers" out of Hoosier boys. Guess he can if anybody can.

Butterick's Patterns at Miss Erskine's.

W. E. Brand, ex-postmaster, has returned from his trip to the Pacific coast. Of course, he had a good time; train robbers did not hold him up, but he did find lots of square meals at ten cents each, and says California is a great place to live.

The musical school at the Military Academy closes tonight, when 14 pupils graduate. This time has been a very successful one. It affords one of the finest opportunities for the study of vocal music in the west. The public will be welcomed tonight.

Alfred St. Peter has completed the new sidewalk from Schuyler M. Coe's down to Idlewild, and it looks like a good job from our wheel in the street. He has grubbed out some small trees and stumps and put in a good bridge over the little ravine near the south end.

The popular girl contest in Waukegan is reaching a stage of acute interest in its development. Our favorite, Miss Bilharz, still leads, having received 2270 votes to date, 100 more than any other candidate. The two highest ones receive free tickets to Niagara Falls and return and $10 cash for expenses.

The United Evang. church had their annual picnic at the lake front yesterday. Every opportunity was afforded those present to part with their money and in doing so they had a good time. There were races in the afternoon and a hay-rack party of children toward evening. It was a delightful church and family gathering, very social, and they made some money for their church. The First United are a happy, united, and useful people: may their work prosper.

Pastor Gould, of the Baptist church, closed his three years' pastorate last Sunday morning with an excellent strong sermon. During the months of August and Sept. the church will unite with the Presbyterians in the morning service, but each church will have its own prayer meetings, Sunday schools and young people's meetings. Each church member and supporter will put his morning offerings in his own church envelope so the money will go where it belongs. We like this spirit of union and Christian fellowship.
