

CITY BREVITIES.

Mr. Charles Kucker of Waukegan, and Mr. Sternes of Lake Bluff, were Park visitors Wednesday.

Judge Hibbard has two first class houses and an 8 room cottage, furnished or unfurnished to rent at reasonable rates, also a few places for sale. Rare bargains, call quick.

Richard W. Hawkins came in victor from the golf grounds Tuesday night, and his friends were glad to learn "Dick" beat. He made a phenomenal run up there a few days ago.

Several local magnates attended the picnic at Fauntleroy's Grove yesterday. Those who took a good lunch had a fine time. The cracker and cheese fellows longed for some other place.

Why pay 10 and 12 cents for kerosene to peddlers and others when James McDonald sells first class oil at 8 cents per gallon and delivered free at your house in quantities of five gallons. Try it.

There is a phone in the County building at Waukegan for the County Officials free use on strictly county business. If you want to serve a term in one of those steel pens, phone the sheriff free of cost.

If you want to see what bank gravel will do for a side street where there is no heavy teaming, look at the little "plug" street that goes by the Fessenden home into the Stockton and Patton places. It is so very inexpensive.

Charles H. Baker and E. O. Van Riper left with their wives for a carriage drive toward Wauconda, varied Volo, generous Grant, and fervid Fox Lake and other summer resorts in western Lake county. Mr. Baker applied to Mr. White for a telephone, of course he got it, so he can send back daily reports of Jack's health.

If you want to be in swim in this city, join the Royal Arcanum, die early, to prove your goodness and leave your family $3,000. Council 1066 held its regular meeting Monday evening and while everything was going on as usual in came Grand Vice Regent Taylor of Grand Council, Chicago, also Past Regent Newhall of the Northwestern council, Parker of the Garden City council, Regent Kennedy and eight other members of the Lake Forest council. Orator Wilson not only had a very choice musical program, but rendered it in his superior, faultless manner. Regent C. H. Baker is proving evidently the right man in the right place and men from other councils like to come here.
