

ABOUT TOWN.

Miss Ada Alford has become an attache of the News office under the new regime.

Mrs. J. R. McQuiston was out for a day or two this week with her mother, Mrs. Elvira S. Green.

The Editor was sick, and then a business call kept him at home Tuesday night, while the Council went on alone.

City Marshal Sheahen has a notice out about your dog tax; next he will have aariat and the poor canine in a box to be drowned in the lake. Look out for the dog.

There is another "home talent" entertainment on the tapis, with probable date fixed Aug. 19th. in McDonald's hall. Frank Green will be there of course and so will Mrs Frank. Can't get along without them.

The village of Libertyville pays its local paper two and one half cents a line for publishing the ordinances and other official notices and also the records of the proceedings of the council. The News proposed to publish the ordinances at three cents a line and give the proceedings free, a price much below the village of Libertyville.

The outlook now is that there will be several vacant houses this winter, whose owners would like to see them rented. If you want a house or cottage, furnished, or unfurnished, we have three on hand now, or a piano you want to rent; or if you want boarders, leave word with Judge Hibbard in Raffin & Baker's; he will help you all he can. Calls are not very numerous just now.

I beg to announce that I have opened a
