

ABOUT TOWN.

C. C. Mosely's family think they are in the third heaven; a little baby girl came to their home Tuesday morning, and now it is a boy and girl and neighbor Moseley says: "What more could we ask," and they are so happy.

John Mohr, the barber in the old stand of the other John Moore, just west of the Central Hotel, finds his business so steadily increasing, a return of that long promised prosperity, you see, that he has been obliged to get a new man, no "cheap John" fellow, but an expert, first-class in all respects, a fact that will please his old as well as new patrons.

There are two cases of typhoid fever on the west side, Town Clerk Hart and one of William Noerenberg's children. Now the problem for the board of health to solve at once is, where it came from. That can't be thrown back on Adam's sin, but it originated it would seem, right here at home, as both cases are near together. We want this and all such diseases stamped out. Does it come from the lake water?

Pastor Thoren has secured a large tent, and beginning with next Sunday will hold a several week's gospel meeting evenings, to which everybody is heartily invited. Services begin at 8 o'clock. Mr. Peter Bilhorn, the famous singer, will sing on Sunday afternoon 3 o'clock and evening at 8 o'clock. Come and hear him. The tent will be put up near the First United Evang. Church. Several ministers from other fields will help.

I beg to announce that on the 12th inst I opened a
