NEWS, 52 weeks for one dollar.

Mr. Frank Moss, a former clerk at the Highland Park Pharmacy, visited friends here Wednesday evening.

Mr Mack, the new baker and restaurant man in the old Heinrich's stand is doing a first rate business, and one of the best evidences of this is, that he pays his bills. That kind of a man will succeed here any time.

The Wednesday Times-Herald published three pictures of President McKinley, his life and their quarters at the "Champlain" hotel, looking across the lake into Vermont, where the people eat three square meals a day, pay their honest debts and go to heaven when they die. The President longs to be there.

Orrin J. Teller, fireman for Engineer Maroney on the Highland Park accommodation train, has been transferred to another division of the North Western, with headquarters at Janesville, Wis., and left for his new post of duty Thursday. His departure is regretted by his many friends, who wish him much success, and hope his new field will prove congenial.

If you want real good books, fiction chiefly, like Dream Life, window in Thrums, Sticket Ministee, Treasure Island and scores of others at five cents a volume and other works like Jane Eyre, John Halifax, Crawford, and so on, well bound at twenty-five cents, go to 75 Dearborn street, where George Monro's Sons will supply you. It is by far the best cheap book store for good literature in the world.

All who missed attending the entertainment, "Cradle Songs Of All Nations," given by the Baptist ladies, last summer at Prof Russell's, will be glad to know it is to be repeated, with additional enjoyable features, in McDonald's Hall, in the near future. Owing to the satisfactory work done by the NEWS Printing Company, in the past, the printing of tickets and programs for this occasion will be left with them. COMMITTEE.

In response to a general demand the Northwestern will run another of its popular dollar excursions to Waukesha Saturday (tomorrow), leaving this city at 7:56, just one minute after the old "Hibbard Special" at 7:55 pulls out for Waukegan. The train reaches Waukesha at 10:30 in the morning and stays there till 6:30, long enough to see all the city, test all the springs, and get cured of all diseases you may have. Don't miss it; you can't fail of having a good and profitable time.
