

ABOUT TOWN.

Rev. J. G. Finkbeiner preached in the United Evangelical tent Sunday and Monday evenings and Rev. P. W. Raidabaugh Tuesday evening.

Robert E. Lee of Russell, Kansas, writes that he "wants a wife". Rare chance for the "superfluous women of Massachusetts", as Gov. Andrews once said.

Robertson & Nolan have an order to furnish 5000 feet of planking for walks, etc., to the city for replacing the walk and surface of the street under the viaduct, just south of the depot.

We call the attention of our own builders, to the proposals in this week's issue for building a new Village Hall in Highwood. Here is a chance, at practically a cash job, for contractors and for workmen, not to be passed over. As it is out of the city, nothing to hinder Alderman Obee, Bock and others bidding for the job.

One of our wheels was run into and badly smashed up a day or two since. "Ed" Ingalls took it in hand and has brazed in pieces of frame and repaired the other parts as needed, the whole making a first class job, as good as could be done anywhere; in fact the wheel is as new, or better. Don't send your damaged wheels to Chicago when such work can be done here at home.

For the G. A. R. Encampment to be held at Buffalo, N. Y., tickets will be sold via the Nickel Plate Road at the rate of $10.50 for the round trip, returning either via rail or boat to Cleveland. Arrangements have been made for parties wishing to remain in sleeping cars at Buffalo, to have the cars tracked convenient to street car lines to any part of the city. Call on or address J. Y. Calahan, general agent, 111 Adams St., Chicago, Ill.

TO TEACH PAINTING.

Miss Folsom, whose adv. appears in another column, has the following letter from Mrs. M. E. Hughes of Mason City, Iowa:

"Having been under the instruction of Miss Folsom in this art, I would say that I consider her one of the best of teachers and earnestly recommend her to those who desire a superior and accomplished instructor. She is also liked and highly respected socially by all who have made her acquaintance in our place.
