

ABOUT TOWN.

Geo. L. Brand and wife and Mr. Eli Ott have gone to Fourth Lake for a week's outing.

William Downs, wife and child, whilom residents of the Park, were in the city over Sunday.

W. A. Ackerman is putting up a good barbed wire fence around his lots 5 and 6 in block 54, just west of A. B. Fessenden's elegant residence.

Evans Bros. have a fine line of hammocks and ice cream freezers that they will sell at cost, now is your chance to buy a fine hammock cheap.

A. G. Popplebaum has sold his house, just put in first class repair, down near the public school, to Harry Raymond a Board of Trade man.

Never read Ik Marvel's "Reveries of a Bachelor?" Well, go into 75 Dearborn street, Munro and Sons, and buy it; good type and fair paper for five cents.

Fred. Schumacher wishes to announce that he orders Plows' and the original Allegrettis candies two or three times a week, and therefore they are always fresh.

One lady told us of a case of real practical Christianity. Instead of taking her own children off on a vacation, she has taken some needy ones into her own nice home for the season.

Don't get angry at the "out west farmers" and West Deerfielders for voting against the new high school building if they should do so. Was it Charles Kingsley who said put yourself in his place?

Mrs. Dr. Haskin gave a tea, or at home, last Friday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock. About a hundred invitations were issued and the affair was a very pleasant one, for Mrs. Haskin is a charming hostess.

The Baptists had their Sunday school picnic Saturday last down on the Lake Side Park. They had all sorts of good games, swings, hammocks and "teeters," together with the ordinary innutritious lemonade, cake, pies, etc. Of course they had a good time, for Superintendent Erskine and Professor Wilson gave the entire day to it, and they can make a whole campmeeting successfully happy. They wisely kept all knowledge of it from us till that morning.

A Waukegan paper says our assessors books do not report any fire and burglar proof safes in Deerfield. Why, just see here: R. G. Evans, Brand Brothers, Gieser Brothers, and City building own safes and one vault: same at M. Moses, Raffin and Baker have two, one at the office and one in the yard; Robertson and Nolan, we think have one, Jas. McDonald, A. W. Waldo, Charles Kuist, D. M. Erskine Jr., two at the depot, Evans Brothers, Postmaster Dooley, Harry Mills, Geo. B. Cummings, to say nothing of the sheep-skin covered "chist" in which we keep our valuables: but perhaps neighbor Palmeter don't regard these as "burglar-proof". He don't, eh? Better look out young man.

A MUSICAL TREAT.

Highland Park is soon to enjoy a rare musical treat. On Tuesday evening, August 24, Miss Eva E. Wycoff, assisted by Mrs. B. C. Jones, will give a song recital at the Presbyterian Church. Mrs. B. C. Jones is well known in the Park. Miss Wycoff has delighted the large congregations at the Presbyterian Church the last two Sabbaths by her rare and exquisite voice. She is the soprano in the Church of the Holy Name in Chicago, and is well known in concert work throughout the northwest. Her recital will undoubtedly be the musical event of the season, and will afford our people an excellent opportunity to enjoy at home with slight expense what many have sought at great inconvenience and outlay in the city. The admission will be 50 cents, the entire proceeds going to the work of the Presbyterian Church.

The American Short Line Between Chicago and Buffalo, N. Y.
