The Lake Geneva excursion last Saturday was a success. They had a big train load, over 400 when they passed the Park, and everybody had a fine time.

Our whilom friend, Daniel Webster Proctor, lieth in Evanston jail because he won't pay a dog tax. As soon as released he will bring suit: who will beat?

For the benefit of consumers, we are glad to know that Raffin and Baker are taking orders for the celebrated D. Z. Scott's Scranton coal at wholesale rates.

The Misses Stella and Lulu Finney returned Monday from a visit to Druces Lake, where they have been rusticated for a week. They report a fine time.

From the number of cases on the docket, tomorrow afternoon will be emphatically "court day." Judge Hibbard has five docketed already, besides what Judges Holmes and Dooley may have on hand. Prosperity is coming sure, this time.

City Attorney Smoot is back from the glories of Wisconsin, as bronzed as an "Injun." He evidently had a delightful time among the farmers on Pewaukee's beautiful lake and rode with his family all over that portion of the state. We shall have to look out or the badgers will adopt him.
