HIGHWOOD HAPPENINGS.

ENMARK & SON TO BUILD CITY HALL.

The regular meeting of the board on Tuesday evening was very important, as the bids on the new city hall were opened at that time. The proposition to issue bonds to borrow $4000 for the new building at 5 per cent, to be retired at the rate of $1000 per year, was favorably debated but not acted upon. Charles J. Peterson of Evanston was appointed to supervise the erection of the hall in behalf of the village at a salary of $15 per week, to begin as soon as the contractor, because Architect Grudevant would be unable to do so. The bids when opened were found to be as follows: A. J.
St. Peter & A. W. Fletcher, $4966
(partial bid); S. G. Enmark & Son, $5750 (without cells); Donaldson, $6260 (no certified check); Carlson & Peterson, $6444; Snyder Bros., $6590; Fred Clow, $6000; Murray & Caddenhead, $6711; Corse & Jeffrey, $6087; Congress Construction Co., $6350 (without cells); I. Light-heart & Sons, $6140 (without cells); Andrew Ruckmann, $7295 (no check).
At first sight it would seem that Fletcher & St. Peter were the lowest bidders, but their bid was only a partial one, and when completed it amounted to over $6000. The board took a recess until Thursday night to figure out the bids. On Thursday all bids were rejected except three—Fred Clow, $6000; Corse & Jeffrey, $6089 (straight bids), and S. G. Enmark $5750 (without cells).
Enmark completed his bid by adding $275 for cells and then both he and Corse & Jeffrey threw off $100 for the substitution of brick foundation for concrete. Then as the bids stood $5987 to $5925 the contract was awarded to S. G. Enmark & Son. The contract with the electric light company was then considered and accepted. The company agrees to continue the lights in the old city hall as long as necessary, also to wire and light the new building free of charge, as well as to paint all the light poles in the village.

BICYCLIST KILLED.

Mrs. Moncrieth, the sister of Jas.
Watson, while riding her wheel on the Sheridan road south of Highland Park, run off the road down the bank of a ravine and was thrown from her wheel with much violence.
She was picked up unconscious and brought home and though seriously injured, it was hoped that she would recover, but the shock was too great and she died Wednesday afternoon.
The funeral will be held at the house of Mr. Watson today.

Miss Emma Udem visited friends in Milwaukee the early part of the

Mrs. Leonie Cramer (nee Steers) the contract of painting and calci-mining the school house interior to John Gustafson for $52.50.

It is reported that Mr. Elward Breakwell, so long and favorably known here as the grandson of Samuel Breakwell, died in New Zealand the early part of the week.

The I. O. O. F. held an invitation picnic on the lake front last Saturday from 2 to 12 pm. There was a large number on the grounds and dancing was enjoyed until a late hour.
