

RAVINIA ITEMS.

Mrs. Tredick and children of Chicago are here visiting Mrs. Russell.

The school-house is being painted and will soon be ready for the children.

Mrs. Dobson of Chicago is visiting her daughter, Mrs. O. G. Kellogg.

Joseph B. Hardacre and family of Englewood are spending a week or two at Mr. Comstock's.

D. W. Gross, the teacher for the Ravinia school, comes well recommended, having been principal of the public schools at Orange City, Iowa. School commences next Monday.

Pastor Heathcote was unable to conduct the service last Sunday at the church. As it was he had to leave a sick bed to attend the funeral at the "Home." He is expected to be able to preach next Sunday.

The Evangelical Lutheran church will celebrate its jubilee next Sunday week, having been organized 50 years ago that date. A very interesting service is being prepared and it is understood that everyone is invited who desires to go. The services will doubtless be conducted in German.

The Epworth League is planning a "Toronto Echo Meeting," which will probably be held a week from next Sunday evening. Since the great Epworth League convention at Toronto in July the members have heard very little of it, so a number of brief, interesting addresses will be prepared and complete arrangements made for a rousing rally, to which everybody is invited.

On Saturday, Aug. 21, James Pennock, a disabled railroad man, passed away at the Railroad Men's Home. He had been suffering for eight years from the time a stroke of paralysis laid him low. He was known to the visitors at the Home by his remarkably quiet disposition and the great patience which he exhibited for one suffering such terrible pain as his. The funeral services were conducted at the "Home" on last Sunday afternoon. Nearly all the inmates and many visitors were present to take a last look at their comrade. The remains were sent to Union City, Indiana, where relatives will dispose of the body.

Mrs. Henry Dennison and daughter Isabelle returned from their visit in New York and vicinity Thursday, and are now at her father's, T. D. Hull's.
