

ABOUT TOWN.

Buttericks patterns for sale at Miss Erskine's.

Miss Mabel Brand spent last Sunday at Edison Park.

Mrs. J. R. McQuiston was in the city Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Emelyne Alford visited with relatives in Aurora, last Sunday.

George McNabb whose hand was injured in a milling machine last week, is out on the streets again.

Mrs. Alexander Robertson contemplates a visit to her aunt in Richmond, Indiana, in a week or two.

You need not read all the tedious, revolting details of the Leutgert trial. He will be convicted, sentenced for life, and pardoned out in from three to six years.

E. H. Purdy, bicycle doctor, etc., has added another combination tandem to his collection of wheels, which he will rent to reliable parties at reasonable rates.

John Mooney says he don't need any fuel to burn brick this weather; all he needs to do is to turn on these sirocco wind waves from the south and in twenty-four hours the work is done.

One of our justices nearly lost his breath the other day. A man who has had two or three suits in his court called and asked for his bill of costs so he could pay it. If that is not a sign of the millenium, what is?

If in need of the services of experienced piano movers or furniture packers and movers, drop a card to Duffy Brothers, p. o. box 142, or call at their stand, at the C. & N. W. depot. By doing so you will secure prompt and efficient service. They are reliable and hold themselves responsible for all goods while in their possession.

Our neighbor Henry Clay Sampson has the habit of going over to the train with half a dozen handsome bouquets of cut flowers from his own gardens and giving them away to his friends and then the city council turn around and order him to put down a cement sidewalk, for the benefit of a family who lives in another block! Such is municipal gratitude.

We spent a few hours Monday looking over the new public library building in Chicago. It occupies half a block between Randolph and Washington Streets, facing Michigan avenue. It has cost nearly two million dollars and is one of the finest in America. It is massive, elegant and convenient. When will we have one somewhat suited to our needs?
