

ABOUT TOWN.

Miss Catherine Daily, one of our summer boarders and a society young lady, was in town Tuesday.

Mr. DeKay of the consolidated Gazette-Register spent Monday in this city. We enjoyed a call from him very much.

Don't forget next Tuesday night is the regular council meeting. We don't know what is up beyond the little bill for the new docket for the police court, but that won't take long.

James Burns, the sign painter, has put the prettiest sign in this city on the window for D. A. Driscoll & Co. at the Ingalls Brothers old stand. If Mr. Driscoll can do as well as that sign would indicate, he is all O. K.

We understand our Baptist friends have arranged with Dr. Anderson for supplying their pulpit regularly, unless some emergency occasionally hinders, when he will send some good man in his place. He is expected himself next Sunday.

This is the way the editors at the county capital talk to their readers. "What do you think of it? Do you ever go into a store and ask for a bar of soap and say 'thank you' and walk out? Not much, Mary Ann! But there are people who go into a printing office and ask for a copy of last week's paper and walk out without ever thinking of paying for it."

Mrs. Elmira Jackson has returned from Highland Park, having spent a week there. — Waukegan Register. Why did not our esteemed contemporary of the Bluff City, tell its readers how delighted Mrs. Jackson was with Highland Park, and how gladly she would have prolonged that one into fifty-two weeks. Don't be too modest, neighbor.

Evans Brothers, now that the season of watermelons and strawberries has gone by, have laid in a supply of New York buckwheat flour. Now if we could only get those old Vermont Maple trees to run pure maple syrup at once, instead of waiting until next March, we should be happy. The Chicago grocers make it all the year out of glucose and West Indies sugar.

Dr. Anderson had an excellent congregation Sunday morning in the Baptist church. It was not only large but representative; many of our best people were there and the sermon had the rare merit of being full of interest and profit to the strong minded men and women and at the same time it met the wants of the ordinary people and the children.
