LOCAL ITEMS.

Miss Clara Schultz, of Cuyler, visited Miss Kathryn Alford over Saturday night and Sunday.

A party of seven of our young people attended an informal dance at Evanston last Saturday evening.

Mrs. George P. Fisher was out Monday to look over their summer home up in "Pocket A" near Mrs.
 Van Schaicks, to see if the water was shut off and all the pipes safe for the winter.

Mrs. Rosa Schmall died at the Railroad Men's Home, where she was cook, Tuesday morning the 23rd, at 4:30 o'clock, of heart disease. The funeral took place Wednesday at 1:30 p. m., conducted by Rev. Mr.
 Saloman, and the interment in the Deerfield cemetery.

For the benefit of those who may be attacked with diphtheria we give the following specific recommended by the Scientific American:— Pour into a tin cup equal parts of turpentine and tar and hold the cup over the fire so the fumes will fill the room. This will loosen the phlegm in the throat and the patient will cough it up. The deadly bacteria are in the phlegm.

The Onwentsia golf club at Lake Forest recently made its annual report. It had during the season 8,000 players on the grounds; $3,000 were paid in fees to the caddies; 60 new members have joined; the club is full; improvements have been made this year at an expense of $25,000 and—we will add a Highland Park man, Fred Clow, had the carpenter work contract,— and today the club's assets are valued at $120,000. A pretty good "two-year-old" that is. H. C.
 Chatfield Taylor is the president.

Here is richness for you. One of our business men has just received a letter, confidential, of course, from New York parties, making him a proposition to handle counterfeit money, promising a small fortune in a short time. There is a nest of these counterfeiters in New York and the United States secret service has its eyes out for them and this letter was stamped suspicious by the inspector.
 Of course it was forwarded to the department in Washington. But they must have queer notions of our moral tone to send such stuff here. The sender says he has worked for years in the engraving department in Washington and knows just how to do it. Perhaps, but would a man who would engrave and print counterfeit bills, scruple to lie a little to help along his scheme. Of course dealing in such stuff is a prison offense.
