cago Wednesday, and fortunately for

of the "tiger."

inal Allegretti candies fresh from the factory you can do so by leaving your order with Fred. Schumacher.

The sun shown yesterday, the first time it had been visible in this latitude for a week.

With Highland Park's "400" the "Automatic" Willeox and Gibbs machine is the most popular.

All kinds of fancy candies can be

Harry Lauder, now of Chicago, but formerly a resident of the Park, visited with Charles Flinn over Sunday.

Come early and get your holiday presents while you can; a large assortment to select from at Dale Sweetland's.

Edgar Moore this week removed his household goods from St. Johns avenue, where he has been making his home for some time, to the house lately vacated by Mr. Bahr, the florist, on Latral avenue.

The Symphony Concert study class met at Mrs. Ben Jones' studio Wednesday afternoon and heard an address by Mr. Waugh Lauder of Chicago on Beethoven's ninth symphony.

At high mass last Sunday, Miss Louise Finney rendered Petris' "Ave Maria" in a most acceptable manner.
She was accompanied by Mrs.
Charles King, whose pupil Miss Finney is. She possesses a clear, sweet voice, of good quality and great promise.

The electric railroad folks have the skeleton of a horse attached to their double-decked cars moving up and down the tracks. They throw a blanket over it when they wish to have it cast a shadow. They might give it a few more outs and a little less "lectricity."

Miss Norton entertained the St.
Margaret's Guild at the home of her parents on Bell avenue Tuesday.
It was an all-day session, working on goods for their holiday sale, which promises to be an unusually successful one. It was a very pleasant social as well as an industrial occasion.

The News is pleased to note the many improvements made in the Lake Forester under the new management. The paper no longer has the tone of a bed-stead, factory, nor the appearance of having been turned out of a horse shoeing establishment. On the contrary, it is bright full of news and strictly up-to-date in appearance. We wish Mr. Hartman much success in his new venture.

Mrs. A. Bock invites you to inspect her complete line of holiday goods. Anyone desiring anything in the line of fruits, nuts, or anything which will tend to make Christmas day full of enjoyment and an occasion to be remembered, cannot do better than call and see her. She has just received a full line of useful and ornamental goods, none better in Chicago—for you to pick from.
No shop worn goods, but everything new and fresh. Buy your Christmas gifts at her store.

Dan P. Sheahan, our versatile and accomplished milk-man has left us a very neat and appropriate calendar for 1898. It has a large picture of a blooming milk maid in pale blue shirt waist, with pink skirt and hood carrying a full pail of foaming milk, with the grazing cows all about her.
Over in the field a little way off another maid sits milking a patient Jersey, but she don't sit on the same side of the cow the maids down east sat. But then that don't injure the milk or cream. Thanks, Dan, for the pretty calendar.

Just stop and notice the harmless hair curlers in Schumacher's window.

Mrs. C. C. Cheney left for Asheville, N. C., Wednesday. She goes to visit her daughter, who is spending the winter there.

Evans Bros. have a full line of oranges, grapes and fruits of all kinds, nuts, raisins, plum puddings, etc., besides the finest line of Christmas trees and evergreens in town.
Read their ad. on another page.
