 lish preaching at 7:00 P. M.

We have received a fine calendar from the Wilee Co. hardwood folks of Chicago. We have sampled their hardwood flooring and like it; this for one reason, it is so well seasoned you can't throw a dog through the crack between the strips after it has been down a few weeks. We shall try them again, we asked for good lumber and they sent it. Thanks for the calendar; we like to be remembered.

A good dentifrice, as Solomon said of a good wife, is a good thing. Daring our Boston life we learned to like Calder's "Little Rhody" preparation; it is ideal in its perfection as a dentifrice. When we came west, we looked about for something to take its place, and finally found Graves', which we are frank to say is as good as human skill can make. It is free from grit and injurious acids, so that it does no injury to the most delicate teeth. And we are pleased to know that Fred W. Schumacher has just put in a gross or two of Grave's preparation for his holiday and post holiday trade.

PASTOR VINES.
 Rev. William M. Vines, the new pastor of the Baptist church in this city, did well to bring along several good letters of introduction and recommendation, as well as some notable press comments on his work as pastor and teacher. He is from the southland and so a stranger to us, and while southern Tennessee is no farther away than New York or New England it is in a different latitude.
 His letters are from such men as Dr.
 J. B. Hawthorne the popular orator of Atlanta, Gov. Taylor and a half a score of others of equal prominence.
 The Chattanooga and Nashville papers speak in the highest terms of his pastorate in Morristown, a city of 2500 inhabitants, east of Knoxville, with a church of 250 members.
 But Mr. Vines' real credentials after all are in his preaching; no man can preach the gospel as he does, clear, strong and out of a deep personal experience, except God be with him, and the divine seal is that on which we rely. Mere letters and press comments are apt to be, as Rufus Choates said, "glittering generalities" and cheap puffs, though not so in this case; but an action from the holy one, can't be feigned. Much people have been added to the Lord under Pastor Vines' labor. God's seal to him that he is true. Men can tie to such an one as that.

ABOUT MAPLE SYRUP.
 One of our neighbors wanted some Vermont maple syrup of us one day last week. Maple sugar is made in the spring as every one knows and if it is put into cakes or bricks it will keep all summer without trouble.
 But if put away as "tub sugar" that is the soft sugar and syrup also gether or put up as clear syrup, it is liable to ferment during the heated midsummer term and so partially lose its fine flavor and acquire a little sour taste. All this can be avoided by keeping it in a cool even temperature, or cold storage through the summer. The season of making lasts from four to six weeks or from the last of February till the first or middle of April. There is no part of farm life in New England into which all the family enter on with so much zest and downright pleasure as sugar making.

 The reason why Vermont syrup has acquired such wide-spread celebrity is the fact that the maple trees there grow among, and often out of the rocks, the big exposed roots of a tree running over these rocks for yards, to get down into the soil deep enough to live. They are thus on high ground, away from all sloughs and standing water, sweet and fresh, and are only watered by rains and mountain springs. The syrup from most parts of New York, Ohio and Michigan cannot therefore have the fine Vermont flavor.

LITERARY NOTES.
 Leland S. Summers, a whilom neighbor of ours when he was a boy in his teens in the primitive wilds of Highwood, sends us a specimen copy of the Electrical Engineering magazine, of which he is one of the editors. Precious little do we know of ohms, amperes, volts, etc. but we do know this magazine is edited with consummate ability, is fresh and bright and up-to-date in every particular and takes an intensely practical view of all matters pertaining to electricity. The year's numbers make a volume of 340 octavo pages of clear type and good paper all for $1.00 per year. The way they go for sham telephone companies is refreshing; in fact shams of all kinds in their line. We wish to congratulate Mr. Summers and his associates on their success.
 Again we beg to remind our readers that we can give them first class clubbing rates with the News for almost any periodical published, except the Youths Companion, which the publishers don't discount a cent save for new subscriptions. On Harpers we can give specially low rates.
