ABOUT TOWN.
 Butterick patterns for sale at Miss Erskine's.
 Carnations 40 cents per dozen at Schumacher's
 Constables Edwards and Rudolph have been doing a land office business this week.
 We suppose there will be some more dog cases soon when our Attorney Smoot returns.
 The Waukegan Register says, Mayor Evans and Supervisor Fletcher were in that city Monday, "examining the pavements." Yes they were, the pavements from the depot up to the county boarding house on the hill!

Step in and examine the graphophone at Schumacher's.
 Last Friday morning a 10 pound boy came to cast sunshine in and bless the home of Mr. and Mrs. William J. McKinney.
 Next week the First United Evangelical church will observe the Week of Prayer. Pastor Thoren will personally lead the meeting, to which everybody is heartily invited.
 Have you seen the handsome calendars Doctor Purdy is distributing?
 They are the handsomest yet seen in the Park, and if you are a patron of his, call and get one. Excuse our blushes when we say they were gotten out at the News office.
 Wednesday evening, Dec. 23rd, a social was held at the home of John Freberg, on St. Johns ave., it being the occasion of Mr. Freberg's 37th birthday; about 25 friends were present, and the evening was spent most pleasantly, there being good singing and story telling in abundance.
 On Thursday, Dec. 24th, Aug.
 Benson was 37 years of age, and in commemoration of the fact invited his friends to call and see him that evening, which they did to the number of 30. Those present report an evening most enjoyably spent, and wish Mr. Benson many returns of the day.

Next Tuesday evening the city council meets. The matter of dividing the city into four wards will come up and perhaps collecting the back water rates will get another airing. The public wants to know who is responsible for lots of these back rents. Some it is very easy to understand, but we don't mean them.
 Rev. Wm. M. Vines preached an unusually excellent Christmas sermon last Sunday morning, on the "Supremacy of Christ," and spoke of his supremacy in history, art, literature, social and political, and finally in the church. It was a broad field, but those who heard him say he covered it admirably, observing the proportion due each point, while his arguments, facts and illustrations were fresh and stimulating.
 At the annual meeting of the Ladies Relief and Aid society of Highland Park, Dec. 27th, the following officers were elected: President, Mrs.
 H. P. Davidson; 1st Vice Pres., Mrs. J. R. Bowman; 2nd Vice Pres., Mrs. T. H. Spencer; Treasurer, Mrs.
 K. R. Smoot; Secretary, Miss A. R.
 La Bar; Visitors, Mrs. E. H. Brown, Mrs. Smoot, Mrs. Bowman, Mrs.
 H. R. Green, Miss Dickenson, Mrs.
 C. H. Warren, Miss Turnley, Mrs.
 O. L. Oleson.

A generous-hearted husband of this city made his wife an ideal Christmas present, a complete set, 10 volumes in Turkey morocco bindings, of the Century dictionary and Encyclopedia of Names. It is elegant and useful, an every-day friend, companion and guide. Lots of folks, who make no small pretenses, don't know how to use a dictionary, or would not if they had one; but this woman does. And when she was showing us the treasure she said:
 "Judge, you are welcome to the use of these books whenever you wish," and she lives in the same block.
 We have again, as for many years past, received the annual calendar of the Springfield (Mass.) Republican, the "leading New England newspaper," as it is truly styled. It is just the same size, shape and style as it was 40 years ago when we first knew the Republican and is an ideal business desk calendar, as the Republican is an ideal business and home newspaper. Its news and editorials are models of business-like brevity, straightforwardness and impartiality, and its pages are clean and pure; they are never soiled with the disgusting details of crimes or social filth.

Fred Schumacher has sold several graphophones. The price of the machine is $10.00.
 The Keystone League of Christian Endeavor of the First United Evangelical Church will enjoy a social watch-night New Years' eve, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm Tillman, to which they extend a general invitation. Admission free.
 In all probability there will soon be another Democratic weekly newspaper in Lake County. A deal is about closed whereby Hon. James Malcolm of Chicago is to acquire the plant of the Lake County Patriot.
 Mr. Malcolm was secretary of the board of agriculture under Governor Altgeld, and was at one time a member of the legislature. He is quite well known in democratic circles.
 Daily Sun.
 Wednesday, the 29th, was a noted day, for two reasons, one local and one of world wide importance. The former, as it was the 58th. anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs.
 W. W. Boyington. We are glad to report he is improving and his family are greatly encouraged. Secondly, it was the 89th. anniversary of William E. Gladstone's birth, the man whom Justin McCarthy says is the greatest Englishman of the Victorian era.
 W. A. Mihills, our Linden avenue neighbor, spent an evening in Holyoke, Mass., one night last week.
 After supper he took up the paper of all that country, the Springfield Republican, and the first thing that met his eye was a clipping from the HIGHLAND PARK NEWS. He was astonished to find that people way off down there, 1,000 miles from home, read his home local paper, and as soon as he reached the Park he marched over to the News office and put down his "In God we trust" dollar of the fathers, so as to have the News every week for 1898, to cheer and enliven his home. "Go thou and do likewise."
