VEGETARIAN HOSPITAL.
Sick People Being Cured on a Non-Meat Diet in England.
 Vegetarianism has taken a stand in England which entitles it to respect from people who are not entire believers in the doctrine, reports the New York Times. The restaurants of the vegetarians are clean and they provide a menu of reasonable variety. One of the latest steps in the line of the work has been the founding of a vegetarian hospital, which a writer in the London Daily Chronicle describes. It was started in 1895, though little was said about it at the time, as the founders did not wish to advertise it until they were sure of its becoming successful. It was to be for nonvegetarians, it being understood that vegetarians are never ill.
 Consequently there was some prejudice to overcome. It was also thought that there might be difficulty in putting an invalid accustomed to eating meat suddenly upon a vegetable diet. But no trouble was found, patients did as well as could be desired, and the result has been altogether very satisfactory. The hospital authorities believe that the general increase of cancer is due to excess in meat eating. Pine baths and massage treatment, with plenty of fresh air, are included in the hospital regimen.

How a Fortune Was Lost.
 A London electrician recently invented an apparatus calculated to greatly simplify a certain process of manufacture. This he perfected in his own factory and provisionally patented. Other interests then occupied his attention, and by some mischance he forfeited his right to complete the patent. Illness afterward intervened, and in his absence the apparatus went wrong, and a workman was called in to put matters right. He realized the value of the invention, thoroughly mastered the intricacies of the apparatus, and straightway drew up a specification and obtained letters patent. Almost at once he disposed of the right to use the apparatus to a certain number of firms, and found himself in a moment the richer by close upon £100,000. Meantime the actual inventor merely enjoys the right to use the apparatus in his own works.

Royal Diadems.
 The value of the jewels in the British crown is about $1,800,000, or a little over one-fifth of the cost of the crown of little Portugal, which is estimated at $5-500,000. The sultan of Johore, however, on state occasions glitters in diamonds, the value of those in his crown and worn upon his person being not less than $12,000,000.
