City Clerk Finney spent Tuesday in Waukegan with his brother.

Jack Lauder, formerly of the Park, spent Sunday with the Flinn boys, returning to his home in Chicago Monday morning.
While fighting the fire at the Carl Dompke house last Tuesday morning Adam Ohlwein had his hand badly bruised by being struck with a fireman's pick.

Yes, the famous "dog cases" are hung up just now, but they will be taken off the hooks one of these days and disposed of, and a fresh batch started, don't you fear.

The weather of the past week, while keeping down coal bills is of the kind to run up mortality rates; almost any known disease lurks in such open winter weather.

D. A. Driscoll & Co. have removed their stove shop and bicycle repairing apparatus to the store formerly occupied by the News, in the Mc-Donald building, on St. Johns ave.

Dr. H. H. Boulter is the name of the new dentist who is to succeed Dr. Fernald in the Fletcher building. He is a gentleman of pleasing address and we predict a large practice for him.

Street superintendent Nolan has encased the city clerk's office with double windows and a storm porch over the front door and now "John" is as happy and comfortable as a clam in winter quarters.

We regret to record the fact that our esteemed ex-city marshal, George Elvey, has had a prolonged attack of the old-fashioned rheumatism that takes hold of a man as though it meant business and don't let go until it has "used him up."

Robert G. Evans has the contract for putting up the new meat market, residence, etc. for Mr. Garrity in Highwood, immediately north of the post office. Of course it will be a substantial brick structure and soon ready for use. Our northern suburb is on a boom.

We happen to know a young man of excellent ability, exceptional character just now out of work but ready to do anything, except care of horses, of which he knows nothing. He is well, strong and ready to do anything he can do for any reasonable compensation.

We understand one reason for the delay in starting the cars on the electric road, is the non-arrival of the blank passes from the engravers, so the official can look out for the newspaper men. The average railroad man knows how to place favors where they will "do the most good."

Saturday morning the marshal received a telegram from Charlotte Anderson, of Lake Side, informing him a valuable English setter belonging to her had been stolen and asked him to look out for it. In the afternoon, our wide-awake marshal while making his rounds, discovered the canine running loose on Laurel avenue and returned him to Lake Side, to the great joy of the owner.

A gray squirrel is wintering in the woods near Ravinook and has got so he comes up on our back porch and makes a noise with the tails, etc., to attract attention till some of us go out with a walnut or handful of corn or cookies, when he comes up, takes them from our hands and runs off with his plunder as happy as he can be, and back for more until satisfied.
We ought to have the woods full of such pets.

Use Schumacher's carnation cream if your hands are chapped or rough.
Schumacher's anti-headache powders are growing more popular every day.

teas at Evans Bros.

Mrs. Noethling, housekeeper at Alex Robertson's, last Monday morning slipped on the sidewalk just north of Mr. Robertson's place, and fractured and bruised her arm quite severely. Dr. Haskins attended her and said she would not be able to use the arm for several weeks.

Early Tuesday forenoon an alarm of fire called the department to the house of Carl Dompke, the shoe cobbler, where a red hot chimney was found to have set fire to the shingles.
A few pails of water extinguished the blaze. No damage was done beyond tearing up a few shingles, which the firemen had to do to get at the flames.

L. Loeb, the enterprising grocer on the west side, while loading his delivery wagon Tuesday, had the misfortune to step on something which turned his foot and sprained his leg. While painful, it is not serious, and Mr. Loeb will soon again be as sound as those McKinley prosperity dollars, promised us some time ago, are reported to be.

You observe the addition to the Warrens' planing door and sash mill?
Well, folks don't build such additions to mills unless there is a demand for it. Mr. Warren keeps all the hands he can use in his mill busy every day and still he is behind on his orders, so that some folks have had to go to Waukegan. But the addition is nearly done and he can increase his force to meet the demands. This shows the local need of such a shop and mill. He has just done us a fine job.

Our readers will remember the sad illness of the wife of Rev. L. A.
Gould, late pastor of the Baptist church in this city, a year ago last Christmas, and her removal to a private sanitarium in Wauwatosa, Wis.
She appeared in the Lake County court last week, fully restored and asked to have her handsome property again restored to her own custody, which we understand the court ordered done. Every one will be glad to know of so happy an ending of that sad and unfortunate affair.
