ABOUT TOWN.

Butterick patterns for sale at Miss Erskine's.

Carnations 40 cents per dozen at Schumacher's.

Miss Mabel Brand visited with friends in Chicago last Sunday.

Miss Cora Bruns of Ravenswood visited over Sunday with the Misses Pierson.

Nels Christenson of Lake Forest is a new employee at the electric light plant.

Miss Hattie Kracht of Ravenswood spent a few days, including Sunday, with Mrs. Henry Ditmer.

Mr. Mearklin, clerk at Schumacher's, moved his goods and family from Chicago to his new home on Green street.

Mrs. H. L. Bowen returned Wednesday, from a visit with her husband's parents in Champaign, Ill., where she has been since Christmas.

Mr. Raikes, clerk of the Bluff City Street railway, has rented a house and will make the Park his home.
He is to run things for the company at this end of the line.

Supervisor Fletcher has so many calls from people who want help of the county, that he has moved his office down stairs into his old coal office at the rear of the ground floor.
People who are owing him on old bills can call in there now and pay up.

Wilbur Hendrix, a brother of Bishop Hendrix, formerly of this city, but who has made Evanston his home for some time, has been offered, and has accepted a responsible position in a bank in New York, and left for the east Thursday. Mrs. Hendrix, who will be remembered as a superior singer and one who sang so ac-ceptably in the choir of the Presbyterian church, will leave shortly for Missouri, where she will spend the winter with her parents, joining Mr.
Hendrix in the spring.

Henry Clay Basye has his house up on the blocking ready for the foundation walls. It was moved from the old location next to the Fletcher block under the superintendence of Richard Seber, an expert in such matters, and he did it so carefully and successfully that it did not interfere with the family life for an hour.

Squire Basye says he now appreciates what it is to have a cellar well aired; nothing is more conducive to health and comfort. He will soon begin the erection of a fine block of stores, offices, etc., on the old site, which he hopes to have ready for occupancy this spring. We hope he won't make the unpardonable blunder of the Thompson folks of not planning for a broad—not less than six feet wide—stairway to the upper floors. We hope also he will carry the walls up two stories and then finish the second floor when he likes.
His walls and roof will then be all ready for use.

THE "CAPTAIN."

We are indebted to William Henry Russell, of Sylvan Dells, for the following, with the request that it appear in the News, the "best, most widely read," etc., journal: Some few years ago a young and newly equipped captain was coming up the Mississippi on one of the palatial steamers which ply between New Orleans and St. Louis. Among the other passengers was a very bright and attractive Indian maiden, who had as pets four vigorous young pups. The captain, as young officers often do, made himself quite conspicuous and never forgot his shoulder straps. In fact he was a dapper young fellow, with his natty military suit. Of course he discovered the Indian maiden as soon as he had discovered his presence to all the passengers.

By and by going up to her, pets he patted one of them on the head and asked its name. "Puppy, sir," was the only response. In half an hour he repeated the operation on pup No. 2, and to his question as to his name, received the same brief reply, "Puppy, sir." So with the third and fourth, during the forenoon, to receive in each instance, the same answer, "Puppy, sir." This was too much for the captain and as she told him No. four was named "Puppy" he exclaimed: "Why how is this, four dogs all with the same name, may I ask what it means?" As calm as before, she only remarked, "Why Sir, in these days you know any puppy can be a cap'n." He looked for the hatchway that he might fall through it out of sight, and the passengers, who had witnessed the performance, burst into a roar of laughter. The "cap'n" was conspicuous by his absence the rest of the voyage.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Editor of the NEWS

In your issue of January 14th, under the caption of "A Noted Trial" appears a statement to the effect that you heard Justice Dooley try the case of Rice vs. Butler and decided against Mr. Rice. That you heard me try the above mentioned case is indeed true; but that I decided the cause against Mr. Rice is not so. I did not decide upon the merits of this case, as, by the evidence adduced (in which was introduced a certain Bill in Chancery, and other papers), it was brought to my notice that a suit was then pending in Lake County before a court of greater jurisdiction than mine, in which suit the same subject matter was involved; and believing, as I do, that a justice of the peace should not try a case that is already filed and pending in a court of record in his own county, I dismissed the case of Rice vs. Butler, leaving for the higher court the decision.
