Mrs. James P. Maxwell of Lake Forest visited with Mrs. John Rudolph and Mrs. Snyder, Tuesday.
The Alta school closed Wednesday for a week and some of the young ladies are visiting with their parents.
Good feed and care, is bound to bring good results, that is why Allen is having such success with his cows.
This office is indebted to A. K.
Stearns of the Waukegan Sun and Lake County Patriot for a very pleasant call.
There are estimated to be about 3064 languages in the world and the average woman when truly indignant is master of 3065 of them.

Barrington will send back Editor Lamey of the Review as supervisor; he is a good man for the place.
Miss Florence Duggan of Waukegan, who has been visiting Miss Ella Duggan, has returned to her home.
Orville St. Peter, formerly with the North Shore laundry, has secured employment in Lake Forest and soon leaves the Park.
Alexander Rafferty, who has been so ill with pneumonia, is able to be around once more, although much changed in appearance.
B. F. Allen has added two more fresh Jersey cows to his herd. The increased demand for his milk has compelled him to do so.
W. S. Lasher has rented his home to a Mr. Richardson, and will remove to Austin, Ill., for three years, the time for which he has rented his house.
A portion of the water pipe for the Linden avenue extension has arrived and it is expected operations in that street will be commenced immediately.
An expert diver and his assistant were summoned from Chicago Wednesday, to ascertain what the trouble has been with the intake pipe down at the lake.

Fred Clow has been awarded the contract for building H. C. Basye's block, on the ground formerly occupied by his home. Mr. Basye reports that he has secured three tenants for the stores and expects to be able to rent the remaining two in a short time.

Sidney Lomerry, while engaged in a wrestling bout with Joseph Duffy slipped and fell to the floor with great force, striking a piece of iron near by and cutting a deep gash in his arm. Dr. Haskin was called and dressed the wound, after taking four stitches.
The firm of D. A. Driscoll & Co., bicycle dealers, repairers and sheet metal and iron workers, has been dissolved. D. A. Driscoll will continue the business. He has recently built a shop on the west side, which will be used for his stove and sheet metal repairing business, while the one in McDonald's building will be devoted to bicycle repairing.

Saturday afternoon Mrs. L. O.
Van Riper gave an enjoyable party to about 20 of the young friends of Miss Edna, in honor of her 7th birthday. The afternoon was devoted to games, etc., followed by a luncheon. Before leaving for their homes each little guest was presented with a beautiful souvenir, one appropriate to Easter.

C. G. Muhlke, one of the oldest settlers in Deerfield, if not in the county, died Tuesday morning after a brief illness. He was widely and favorably known throughout this section as a man of many good qualities. Mr. Muhlke leaves five children, two sons and three daughters.
One of his daughters, Mary, is Mrs.
George Brand.

A novel case was argued in the circuit court last night before Judge Donnelly. It was a case entered by W. B. Smith, complainant, against County Treasurer, James Murrie to prevent him from giving the tax lists for publication in Antioch. The complainant argued that it was damaging to his interests to have the lists published in Antioch as there are so many persons interested in the lists, who reside on the lake shore, where the paper does not circulate. He further argued that the Treasurer should consider the general circulation of the paper to which the printing was awarded. The judge took the matter under advisement for decision next Thursday afternoon. Attorney R. W. Coon appeared for the complainant and States Attorney Heydecker and Attorney Farrell, of Chicago for the defendant.—Sun., Tuesday.

Mrs. Garbolet, of west Deerfield avenue, wishes to sell fresh rich milk to a few customers. Free delivery.
Call or drop her a postal.
A gypsy queen, daughter of a seventh or ninth daughter, or something of that sort, while walking down Central avenue, happened to glance at the display of easter bonnets in the window of Mrs. Charles Waugh's millinery emporium and was filled with admiration. The artistic instincts so long dormant in her were fanned into a blaze and digging down into her inside pocket she extracted the proceeds of her fortune telling tour—wring from the pocket-book of the superstitious, — and went inside and invested. So Queen Calico next Easter Sunday will appear in a brilliant new bonnet, one that will rival the lustre of the sun in its splendor, dazzle the eyes of all who behold it, and one which only Mrs. Waugh with her rare and inimitable taste and skill could trim.
