NEWSLETS.

Buttericks patterns for sale at Miss Erskine's.
George Morris, former resident, was in town over Sunday.
Rich Jersey milk, 20 quarts for $1.00. Allen, P. O. box 40.
C. M. Green is building an addition to his Laurel avenue home.
Mr. Rubins of Chicago has leased the Roberts house on Sheridan road.
Harry Raymond is to occupy his summer home on Sheridan road soon.
David Hart of Waukegan was a business visitor in the Park, Monday.
David L. Zook and family left for Evanston Monday. The poor Zooks!!
Schools will begin next Monday, and all the Johnnies and Susans will be on hand.
Mr. John Cutter of Chicago has moved into the Lightner house for the summer.
Mrs. Leach was out from Chicago Wednesday, returning to her home the next day.
Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Kirk of Evanston visited with Mr. and Mrs. T. Schwartz, last Sunday.
Trinity people are building a new high, tight board fence in the rear of their church and rectory lots.
A license is out for the marriage of Miss Mary A. Genest of the west side, to Charles W. Storms of Chicago.
The News understands Superintendent of streets, Nolan intends resigning his position soon and going to the Klondike.
Mrs. Amy H. Ettinger, who has spent nearly a year at Ravinook, left for her future home in Berlin Center, Ohio, Monday last.
Hon. Charles A. Partridge has begun arrangements for a military company for the Cuban war. He wants to have them all Lake County men.
John Jennings went to the front with his regiment Tuesday evening. We think he is so far, Highland Park's only representative in the Cuba libre force.
County Recorder, W. M. Ragan, of Waukegan filed a mortgage for two and a half million dollars Wednesday. That is a little bigger than any we have recorded.
Bert Cole, last Saturday night attended a prize ball in Ravenswood, given by the dancing academy of that place, and won a gold medal as the best gentleman waltzer.
The Benson house which stood on Green street, near Laurel, for so many years, is being moved to the north part of town, near the junction of Second and Green streets.
The "specimen copies" of the new edition of the city ordinances are now ready for the action of the city council this evening, in a volume of about 185 pages royal octavo.
Having his own cows and feeding them with the best of feed, gives B. F. Allen every opportunity of giving his patrons the best milk at the lowest price; give him a call, it will pay you.
The marriage of Miss Eunice E. Edwards, grand-daughter of W. W. Boyington, the architect, to Walter E. Hegg of Chicago is announced to occur in the near future, tomorrow we think.
A tax payer asked us the other day if private citizens could attend the meetings of the board of education. Certainly, they can; no star chamber business here and besides the board would welcome them.
If like other years, there are about a dozen candidates for city marshal, and only one can be appointed, we suggest to the other eleven that they enlist for Cuba libre. Uncle Sam is sure, prompt pay and his wages are better than sponging ones' living out of his friends, or trying to hood wink the public as a tramp.

Cows pastured by the week or month at Allen's Dairy farm.
The city council will meet in regular session next Tuesday evening for the purpose of performing the regular business and inducting the new members into office, as well as listening to the mayor's addresses, farewell and inaugural and of confirming his appointments.
The Basye block is nearly enclosed. The future News office begins to have an intellectual look. If only Mr. Basye had run the front up a floor or two higher the fighting editor could have had his office in the loft.
Mr. E. Norman Scott, who with his sisters occupied the J. L. Ball home on Prospect avenue last season, has taken a room for the summer at Ravinook, and will be out tomorrow afternoon; his many golf friends will please take notice.
T. E. Pierson, who has been running an upholstery establishment and working at the factory part of the time, will give up his labors and remove to Evanston next week. Mrs. Nolan and daughter Kate, mother of Superintendent of Streets Nolan, will rent the house occupied by Mr. Pierson and run it as a boarding house.
We are glad to inform the public that a large scow, with engine and all the apparatus and machinery complete, necessary to repair the broken water main, is now anchored down by the pumping station and as soon as the lake becomes calm enough to work, they will do the job in short order. The broken pipe is a 16 inch one, instead of 12 as we said last week, which makes it a much more difficult job. The committee in charge have done everything that could be done, and as rapidly as possible. The elements don't cease their havoc with the lake to suit our wishes or need.
A letter was received by us from Elisha Morgan, a day or two since, dated Silao, Mexico. Mr. Morgan seems to be having a fine time down there in the land of the caeti, though he confesses some highly prized yankee luxuries are somewhat scarce. Silao is on the Mexican Central pretty well down towards Mexico City, about 21 degrees latitude,—we are 42 north. Mr. Morgan says the Mexicans there are for Cuba Libre—good for the Mexicans. Mexico had 300 years of Spanish rule and gained its own independence a little over 75 years ago and now wants Cuba to enjoy a like freedom.
