

NEWSLETS.

August Noerenberg is building a cement sidewalk in front of the Raymond place.

George Brown, the landscape gardener, is putting the grounds of the Raymond residence on the Sheridan road, in order and he will do a good job, he knows how and has the habit that way.

Alderman Phillips is re-moving in to his own renovated, enlarged and greatly improved house. He begins to realize what that old proverb meaneth which says "Three moves are as good as a fire."

George Martin, who has been sick for a long time, died of typhoid fever Monday last in a Chicago hospital. He was born October 29, 1874. The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon in the First Evangelical Church, conducted by Rev. A. Haebele, the pastor, and the burial in Deerfield. He leaves a father, three brothers and six sisters.

We call the attention of those who keep cows, horses or live stock of any kind to the card of Dr. A. S. Alexander, the veterinary surgeon of Evanston. Dr. Alexander, as we have already said, is a thoroughly educated man, trained in the best Scotch Universities and hospitals, before locating in this country some years ago. He is a first class man in all respects.

Max Simpson has moved into his new house on Lincoln avenue. This is the first of a number of good, substantial houses to be built and sold at reasonable prices and on easy terms. Another will be started next week on Second street, between Laurel and Central avenues. H. K. Coale can impart the necessary information as to prices and terms to all desiring it.

The Republican county convention will be held in Libertyville, Saturday, May 21st, at half past one o'clock, to nominate delegates for the senatorial committee in Woodstock. Deerfield will have 19 delegates, 14 in the first precinct and 5 in the second. The primary caucuses for nominating delegates will be Friday evening, May 20th. Don't forget this now if you want office.

We chanced a day or two since to stroll into the Hipwell cottage, so called, on Central avenue, and somewhat to our surprise found one of the most inviting, convenient and well equipped houses we have seen in the market. It is new, well planned, by a practical housekeeper, well built, wired for electric lights, with city water and sewer connections, steam heated, five rooms on each floor, besides pantries and closets, a large attic, cellar well cemented, under the whole house and on the best street in the city. If any reader of the News wants a house or knows of anyone who does, don't fail of seeing this one.

AROUND THE COUNTY.

Ex-mayor De Wolfe is raising a military company in Waukegan to liberate Cuba.

Waukegan has about a dozen cottage prayer meetings scattered over the city, Tuesday nights.

The Waukegan High school is accredited at the Universities of Wisconsin, Michigan, Illinois and Chicago.

The High school class of 1898 in Waukegan has written a poem on "Cuba Libre." Cuba has our sympathy.

There is talk of forming a North Shore company of heavy artillery, and Evanston is ready to see most of the offices filled.

Miss Blanche Loveridge of the Bluff City, who spent a year in travel and study in Europe, lectured on "Women at Home and Abroad" before the cultured denizens of that city, last night.

John A. Putnam of Chicago and Miss Anna Winchester of Highland Park took out a marriage license in the county court Monday last.

The Belt Line railroad at Waukegan is pushing for harbor privileges. As soon as Cuba is free, our neighboring town will get up a boom.

Waukegan council has just laid out a new street. Let our council go low suit. We don't need one exactly, but we must keep with the procession.

The editor of our esteemed contemporary the London Times, George E. Buckle, is only 30 years old. We have had a flavor of miniature real several times.

George H. Bartlett, ex-sheriff of the county, wants to join the "Old Comrades" organization, which Gen. George C. Rogers is forming for the freedom of Cuba.

A Waukegan lawyer says he has been "gulling" his fellow citizens twenty-five years. We fear the "sphere" of his influence has been more extensive than that.

Illinois quota to fill the call for 125,000 men for Cuba will be 6,008, while little Vermont will be asked to send 634, and the first regiment of the national guard will number one or two hundred more than are called for.
