NEWSLETS.

Buttericks patterns for sale at Miss Erskine's.

Miss Marie Ball of Chicago visited friends here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Kirk of Evanston were in our city this week.

Cows pastured, called for and delivered daily by Allen P. O. box 40.

Miss Nellie Palmeter of Chicago, visited with May Scott over Sunday.

Fresh Jersey milk, 20 quarts for $1.00. Allen's dairy, P. O. box 40.

Mr. Merritt of Chicago has moved into the Dr. Bergen cottage on Park avenue.

J. W. Baker of Chicago is occupying the Elisha Gray house for the summer.

J. S. Moore has moved into the Dr. Babcock house which he occupied last summer.

C. P. Sullivan is putting in the new water pipe for Mrs. Jones in the Smurthwaite house.

Mrs. A. T. Lay and family have moved back into their Vine avenue home for the summer.

Politicians "look after their fences," but "Ned" Nevins looks after the bridges etc. of the city.

Frank Anderson of Chicago has moved into the house vacated by T. F. Miller on Laurel avenue.

Why not keep your own cow and have plenty of milk. Allen sells or rents fresh cows at moderate prices.

Mrs. Col. James having rented her home in the Pocket for the summer, has taken rooms with Mrs. Tracy D. Hull in the Goodridge house.

If there is one institution in this city which can be denominated a success it is the electric street railway. The novelty don't seem to wear off at all.

The News is in its new office—the brand-new Basye block—where everything is new, spunk and clean. Call in and see us; by next week we will be settled and ready to see our friends.

The Exmoor Club coach is on duty as nobby as you please. Just be at the depot at 3:41 or 5:47 p. m. if you wish to see some stylish turn-outs, up-to-date, for this fine de sicle age and city.

Postmaster Dooley wishes us to say he has a few more of these good old style blue one cent postage stamps which he is selling cheap for cash, only one cent each, lay in a supply before they are gone.

Mrs. Jean Sherwood will deliver an illustrated lecture on "Art in the school room" at the public school on Friday afternoon, May 20th, at 3.30. The business of the annual meeting will be transacted after the lecture.

Mrs. J. R. McQuiston is spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. Elvira S. Green. Her sons Harvey and Paul were here over Sunday, returning to their work in the University of Chicago, Monday morning.

Boarding house keepers and house renters are anxiously waiting for a change in the weather: a "hot spell" would be a real bonanza for them as much as the capture of the Spanish fleet would be to Admiral Sampson and his men.

A Rochester N. Y. nursery firm want us to give them the names of a few first class men for agents. If you are a first class man or woman, in want of this kind of employment let us have your names and we will send them forward.

We have received a very pleasant note from Gerard Van Schaick, who is in St. Paul's school, in Concord, N. H., telling us how much he enjoyed the weekly visit of the News, which keeps him in touch with life in all its varied phases in the Park. It will not be many weeks before he will be home for his summer vacation and so be able to get the news first hand.

Rich thick cream can always be had at Allen's dairy, P. O. box 40.

Byron R. Leach, formerly assistant postmaster of this city, was in town yesterday. He came out to see about a new roof on the ancestral residence and call on his friends, taking the 12:47 train for Chicago. Of course he took a trip on the electric while here.

Charles W. Kirk was out here Saturday to plant some shade trees and shrubbery on his choice lots, shake hands with his friends and see if the political ship was sailing all right. When he heard the boss's cry of "All is well," he rejoiced and took the next train for home.

City council holds an adjourned meeting next Tuesday evening the 17th, to hear the contested election case of Silas P. Brand vs. Alfred St. Peter. Everything will be done decently and in order and with respect of the legal rights of the contesting parties.

Charles H. Baker and family will take up their summer quarters in Hotel Highland the first of next week. It will seem very much like going home to Mrs. Baker, and the famous "Jack" will soon adapt himself, with the usual skill of childhood, to his new environments.

Col. Davidson is having a full row of elms from John Mooney's nursery set on the south side of the Military Academy grounds, as class trees. Each class thus far having graduated to have its own tree. This is one of the results of the recent tree-planting by the class of '98.

Charles M. Green is following the example of our other millionaires in greatly enlarging and improving his house. Additions are being made on the east and west sides and the north end, so that it will be quite a palatial residence when completed. His workmen look as though they came from Chicago, at least some of them.

Just a word. The city means business in the bicycle ordinance to keep off the sidewalks and use lamps at night. The lowest fine is $1.00 and costs are liable to run it up over $5. So go slow on these matters. The new city marshal has got some sand in him and like historic Archbishop Laud, he is "no respecter of persons."

People make no mistake by following the advice of the Northwestern Yeast Co. to try the sample of Yeast Foam left at their door this week. This yeast has been on the market for the past twenty years without a rival worthy of the name. There are many imitations of this celebrated yeast, but only one Yeast Foam. Be sure you get the genuine, there is no other yeast as good as Yeast Foam.

A Massachusetts man rises to say he was a school mate of Commodore Dewey. The editor of the News was not, never saw him, but some dozen years ago occupied the same Pullman from Montreal to Chicago with the Commodore's brother Charles. President of the National Life insurance company of Montpelier, Vt, one of the best companies in the world, as solid as the everlasting hills of his native state. If there is any glory in this for Dewey, he is welcome to it, though he don't seem to be in want of that just now.

Miss Eva Wycoff, with Mrs. Helen Tiffany and Miss Cecile Norton as assistants, will open a children's singing class tomorrow, (Saturday morning) the 14th, at the Highland Park Club House. If Miss Wycoff can teach as well as she can sing, and we presume she can of course—she can do a very valuable work for the children of this place. The terms will be $3.00 per pupil for twelve weeks, very reasonable indeed. In childhood and youth is the time for lots of this kind of work to be done, and competent, thorough instruction is of inestimable value.
