 new cement sidewalk for W. S. Lasher, in front of his residence.

Dr. Ingalls, and Messrs. Kilpatrick and Vance of the Railroad Men's Home visited friends in Waukegan Tuesday.

A valuable dog, the property of Frank Gallagher, was run over by the electric car and killed. Wednesday morning.

 Mr. Clarence Dickinson, organist, are the artists engaged for the Choral Society concert for June 7th.

Mrs. Roger Moore gave a party to the friends of Miss Bessie, last Saturday afternoon, to commemorate the tenth anniversary of her birth.

More children are required to make the children's class a success. They had a jolly time singing and laughing and they did very nicely too.

Edward Nolan, ex-superintendent of streets in Seattle, on his way to Klondike. He sold his excellent bicycle to City Clerk Finney before he left.

Charles Kuist is doing the tin work for the repairs and additions on the Wileox house, in the "Pocket," formerly the Alta school and the Mulford home.

George Elvey, ex-city marshal, is helping out the city board of health as inspector. George has good eyes and pair of olfactories, so look out if you have any bad places.

Mrs. Look, whose husband died a short time since in Florida, has just returned to the Park to make her home with her daughter, Mrs. E. H.
 Brown, down in the "Pocket."

Decorate your windows with the American and Cuban colors. Two beautifully lithographed flags, one of Cuba and the other of the United States, on good paper, 16x24, for five cents, at the News office.

Mrs. James McDonald gave a quiet tea Saturday afternoon, for Mrs. McDonald of Seattle, Wash., and Mrs. Leach of Chicago. It was an old fashioned all-the-afternoon visit with tea at the proper hour.

Has the peanut vendor paid his annual license fee? If not, abate him; the people don't want him with his cart and fire and himself on one of our most prominent street corners.
 Get a move on him, Mr. Marshal, and that right early.

The finest beds of tulips we have seen this season in this or any other community, were grown in Cashier Richard J. Streets' yard. They are not only very large, but very brilliant, of varied hues and made a most striking appearance.

The officers for the coming year elected at the annual meeting of the Ossoli Club were: Mrs. Daniel Cobb, president; Mrs. James Hall Shields, vice-president; Miss Van Schaick, secretary and treasurer; Mrs. Henry C. Street, Miss Adele Everett, directors.

There is, or has been, a bad place where the new water mains have been put in on the R. J. Street corner. The filling has settled badly, leaving one very bad and other bad enough places. The earth in such fillings should not only be wet down, but carefully tramped down so it can't settle much more.

Plenty of good milk and cream is a comfort and a pleasure. Keep your own cow, it costs very little. Allen rents or sells fresh cows at low prices.

Charles Patchen raffled off his Derby bicycle this week down at the Kellogg switch board factory. No.
 56, held by Mr. Delanty of the Railroad Men's Home, drew it.

Mrs. H. O. Stone will spend next Sunday at the Exmoor Club, Highland Park, the guest of Mr. and Mrs.
 Secor Cunningham. Mrs. Stone returned yesterday from a short visit at Oconomowoc. She will return there for Decoration day.—Chicago News, Tuesday.

Mrs. T. C. Platt, who formerly lived up on old Port Clinton, died in Chicago last week. Miss Middleton, Miss Hipwell and Mrs. C. H. Warren attended her funeral at Rosehill Saturday. Her husband died while the family lived here in the house now owned and occupied by Charles B.
 Rice.

They say a new broom sweeps clean, so long since we had one that we have forgotten, but the new city marshal seems to be making a pretty clean sweep of the wheelmen on the side walks. All the old arrears on the old judges' office rent are paid off and there will begin to be a "surplus" at this rate.

The latest in address cards is one with the American and Cuban flags embossed in red and gold in the upper left hand corner. It is not only a rich and neat appearing card, but is substantial besides and can be procured at the News office with your name neatly printed on them for $1.25 for 100, or with your name and address for $1.50 for 100. Call and see them.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dittmer wish, through the News to return their heartfelt thanks to the neighbors and friends who so thoughtfully and kindly rendered all possible human aid and sympathy during the recent illness and death of their little son Harry, who died May 3rd, and especially grateful to the members of the Evangelical Church for their prompt and assiduous attentions and attendance at the funeral.

This office is printing tickets and posters for a ball to be given by the Highland Park band next Wednesday evening, May 25th, the proceeds to go towards the purchasing of uniforms. As the band will prove a valuable addition to the Park, it is hoped their ball will be successful and liberally patronized. It is the intention of the members to hold a series of concerts during the summer, or as soon as enough money can be raised for uniforms. Give them a lift.

There are several families down about those two vacant Cushing lots, opposite Dr. Babcock's, who are pietously crying out in soul, "How long, oh, how long have we to endure the bellowings of that old cow," tethered there without permission and then left to suffer day after day for water.
 It became such a nuisance to us Sunday afternoon as we sat in our room trying to read that we were moved to count the number of bellowings in the short space of five minutes—and how many think you? Only thirty, or six per minute. As the boarder said of his baked beans diet in a Boston boarding house, a few are all right, but when it comes to that hour after hour and day after day for forty days in succession, it is too much. Let the bellowing cow nuisance be abated, and thoroughly done also.

Professor Umbach of Northwestern college, preached for the Evangelical people (in the reading room) last Sabbath, both morning and evening. The Professor has a wonderful talent in the expounding of the gospel, he is very plain and comprehensive, a child can grasp his clear, simple, yet fitting illustrations that serve the point in thought. The Evangelical people will be thus served from Naperville Institute the coming five Sundays, and should any be at leisure Sunday evenings, are invited to attend and enjoy a rare treat.
