NEWSLETS.

Fresh Country Cottage Cheese and butter milk fresh from the churn at Allen's Dairy. P. O. Box 40.

The people of Ravinia enjoyed an unusual treat last Sunday evening, in the sermon of Rev. Mr. Stone, who preached at the M. E. Church.

The High School board have retained the old "faculty" and all have signed for another year. That ensures the same high standard as in the last three years.

Perhaps some folks did not know that Rector Wolcott of Trinity Church, spent most of his life prior to his coming here, teaching and administering in boys' schools.

Mr. Mersereau was called to his old home in Steuben County, N. Y. on account of sudden death among some of his immediate relatives. He left here Sunday afternoon.

The Brand - St Peter contest comes before the city council next Tuesday evening, June 14th. If not finished then, it will be continued to suit the convenience of the parties and their counsel.

The pupils of Mrs. Jones and Miss Wycoff will give a recital in the Highland Park Club house next Tuesday evening, to invited guests.
It will be a choice entertainment, the size of the small hall there will limit the audience.

Mrs. C. C. Cheney returned with Miss Cheney, who has been in Ash-ville N. C., over a year, to their home a few days since. Miss Cheney is greatly improved in health by her long residence in the mild mountain climate of that region.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Shields left Sunday night for Hartford, Conn., to see their daughter, Miss Irene, graduate. Miss Shields, from what we can learn, has made a fine record for herself there and very naturally her parents wish to be present at her graduation.

The finest Elgin Creamery Butter, fresh made and packed in jars of any size at 18c. per lb. A trial of this delicious butter will convince you of its high flavor and purity. The Ex-moor Club and many residents of the Park are getting their supply from Mr. Allen, who is the only man handling this well known grade along the North Shore.

Raffen & Baker are making improvements all the time about their lumber and coal yards. The latest is grading their park-way so that it will have a real civilized appearance.
Then a new sign stretches across the street to catch the unwary would be purchaser of fuel or building material.

The Baptist people have decided to fall into line with their Presbyterian friends and have no evening service during the three summer months. The Young People's society during the same months will hold its service at 4 o'clock p. m., as important and profitable a service probably as there is connected with the church.

The public schools will close Thursday evening, week after next, June 23rd. We have not seen the program yet, but if the pupils don't up to their high standard we shall be surprised. They have a kind of a habit of surprising their friends and outwitting everybody else, and they won't go back on their record this year.

High School Class next Thursday evening, June the 16th, in the Presbyterian Church a class of nine, two in the classical and seven in the English departments, will graduate.
There will be four orations and four essays. We want every young lady to read loud enough for us to hear, as we stand near the entrance door, and every young man to thoroughly commit his piece and leave his manuscript at home. Let the prompter be an unknown quantity.

Mrs Harry C. Sampson gave an enjoyable country lunch to the Chicago Alliance Wednesday.

C. G. Phillips, laden with aldermanic honors, went 25 miles from home Saturday evening, for dinner.
Some old St George society for college class gathering, we suppose.
Just before he started he "hived" two swarms of bees, both from one colony, and he felt happy, the first swarming of the season.

Disasters come not singly. That so, for this week has brought commencements, concerts, hops, tournaments, banquets, et cetera without number. Tuesday evening when we wanted to take in that concert in quiet undisturbed satisfaction, there was the city council, the alumni banquet, the reception and hop, and it made us "hop" pretty lively in the rain to get a snap shot at them.

The Lake Forest University commencement comes next week, beginning Sunday morning with Dr. Mc-Clure's baccalaureate to the graduating class, in the Presbyterian church.
Dr. McClure always has something to say well worth the hearing. Wednesday forenoon will come the Ferry Hall commencement exercises, over which our former principal, Miss Sargent, will preside, with the President's reception in the evening.
Thursday morning will come the University commencement and President McClure's inaugural. It will be a rare week, and these schools, let us not forget, are in a very important sense, Lake County institutions.

The enterprising editor and publisher of the Lake Forester, Mr. Hartman will issue a daily during the week. Make it a point to attend all you can.

HIGHWOOD HAPPENINGS.
John V. Garrity will continue the meat business of Garrity & Brown.
Mr. Brown has withdrawn.

The Chicago papers report the final capture of Thomas Myers, when he came back to the old hotel and found the officers waiting for him.

Rev. S. S. Clay is conducting a series of mid-summer revivals at the church, starting last Monday night.
Elder Mandeville preached Wednesday evening and held quarterly conference after the services.

The public school closed last Friday with appropriate exercises. The children who took part showed both careful training and personal enthusiasm in the work of entertainment.
The graduates had to pass two examinations, one for the county superintendent and one for the High School. The teachers will probably be hired next year. That our schools are first class under the present corps of teachers is shown by the crowded condition of the rooms and the large number of pupils coming from outside the district.
