NEWSLETS.

Buttrick's Patterns for sale at Miss Erskine's
Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Loss were Waukegan visitors Tuesday.
A full line of patriotic stationery can be procured at this office.

Miss Fanny King of Coldwater, Mich., is visiting with her sister, Miss Mary, teacher at the public school.

Miss Harriet M. Alford left Wednesday morning for a two weeks' visit with relatives in Downers Grove and Aurora.

Whiting's Sixteenth Century deck-edge, is the latest and neatest thing in writing paper. Evans & Forrest have it.

Rev. A. A. Pfanstiehl was called by telegram to Lafayette, Ind., his former charge, to conduct a funeral of one of his former parishioners, last Wednesday.

The Waukegan school board is having a time in electing a principal and superintendent of its schools this year and so can sympathize with our Park board.

The brick building being erected on St Johns avenue, just north of the paint shop, is to be occupied by Henry Ewart, as a blacksmith and general repair shop, as soon as completed.

Wednesday at Duluth, Dr. Elisha Gray addressed the Northwestern Electrical Association. Mr. Gray spoke on the changes wrought during the past few years through the medium of electricity.

There will be communion service at the United Evangelical church next Sunday morning. The presiding elder, Rev. E. K. Yeakel of Chicago, will be present and officiate both morning and evening. All are invited.

Tuesday, the furniture of Motor-man Charles Wedge was moved to Highwood, where in the future he and his family will reside. Mr.
Wedge will probably be stationed permanently on the Highland Park division of the electric road.—Sun.

A. Robertson Tuesday evening was awarded the contract for furnishing the village of Port Sheridan with lumber for the year commencing June 1. Three bids were opened by the board and his being the lowest he was given the contract.

Cards are out for the wedding of Miss Emily M., daughter of Senator Coon of Waukegan, to a son of Senator Mason of Washington. The wedding will take place next week Wednesday evening, June 22d. Miss Coon has been principal of the Waukegan high school some years and is a young woman of fine intellectual ability and culture, and a most successful and capable teacher.

Rev. H. H. Thoren, until recently pastor of the United Evangelical church, but who is now laboring in Naperville, shook hands with many of his old friends in the Park Monday, who were pleased to learn he was almost fully recovered from the illness which prostrated him just before leaving the Park and that he liked the scene of his new labors very much.

The old Northwestern Railway company are pursuing their last year's policy of occasional cheap excursions to desirable points in their territory. Next Tuesday there will be one to Lake Geneva, the "Lake George" of the west, where is the most famous and the largest tel-eoscope in the world, one that brings the moon so near you can see the boys slide down hill, and the girls can tell the color of the eyes of the young man they so often see in that nocturnal luminary. Fare for the round trip only $1.00; train leaves here at 8:10 a. m. Don't fail, with your lunch, basket full.

Paper napkins for picnic parties

The Bachelor Maids' Club attended Wednesday's matinee of "Shenandoah" at McVicker's Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Halsey, a former resident of the Park and a teacher in the Baptist Sunday School, spent Sunday with his old friends here and made an interesting address to the school.

C. C. Crippen of Lake Forest was a welcome visitor at this office Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Crippen recently went into the general express business and reports it as booming.
He is a hustler, conscientious and accommodating and anything he has anything to do with is bound to boom; cannot help it.

Work on the electric road between Lake Bluff and North Chicago progresses with great vigor. The track is nearly laid and everything points to an early completion of the road as far as Highland Park. Last week men and teams began the work of excavating the sub-way under the Northwestern tracks below North Chicago. The work is now about in shape for the masons to begin their part of the job.—Tuesday's Sun.

Dr. A. K. Parker, pastor of the Centennial Baptist Church, Chicago, together with Deacon Pope, Dr. Hammond and wife, Mrs. Prof. Carman of the Lewis Institute and Miss Alice Smith, all Centennial church people, came out Saturday afternoon to visit Mrs. J. R. McQuistoo, who is occupying the Erskine home during the Ex-mayor's absence in Europe. They brought their lunch baskets full intending to lunch about 5 p. m. on our elegant lake front park, but owing to the heavy "dews" that fell that afternoon they abandoned that feature of the entertainment and lunched on the Erskine home porches and left Mrs. "Mac" several baskets of fragments for Sunday lunch! How kind and thoughtful Chicago people are, that is some Chicago folks. They expressed their delight in Highland Park, but thought our "dews" a little heavy and wet.

AN ESTEEMED CITIZEN.

In the death of Hon. Ansel B.
Cook of Libertyville, Friday morning, June 10th, not only that town but Lake county loses an able, public-spirited citizen; one who has made an enviable record as a business man, as well as town, county and state official. Born in Haddam, Conn., August 18, 1823, he was almost 75 years old. A country boy of limited means, he secured the best education the public schools and local academy afforded; poor health then prevented his securing a college course on which his heart was set, and he learned the stone cutter's trade. He had first-class blood in his veins, his great-great grandfather being one of the Mayflower Pilgrims of 1620.

He came to Chicago, saw his opportunity and seized it, acquired fame and fortune, bought a home in Libertyville in 1866, went back to Chicago after the big fire of 1871, returning to Libertyville for the balance of his life in 1880. He was a shrewd, sagacious, practical man of rare good sense and sound judgment. His home, "Mapleside," was the finest residence in Libertyville.
The funeral was Monday and was largely attended by leading citizens of the county generally.
