

THE GLORIOUS FOURTH.

Some one asked us awhile since who were the influential people of Highland Park, and we told him if he had a good enterprise he wished to make succeed, it would be all right if he could harness the Club folks and the Daughters of the Revolution to it. They have the wealth, the culture, the push and energy, the good common sense and practical wisdom to make things go aright and to a successful issue.

That is what the Fourth of July has done, just enlisted these men and women in its behalf and here is the program in general: every one will do what is right in his own eyes during the day, and at evening-tide, at 7 o'clock sharp, or "early candle-light" as the fathers and mothers used to say in the olden days, every body is cordially invited to meet in the Park on the lake shore at the head of Central avenue, where will be 1st, an oration by Rev. A. A. Pfanstiel and one that will make your blood tingle and fill your heart with pride that you are an American, native born or by adoption. 2nd, Join with a good choir in singing patriotic songs—like Star Spangled Banner, America, Marching Through Georgia and others. Don't forget to bring your voice and sing, for if everybody in the Park would only sing as well as they can, we can wake them up over in Michigan, and then 3rd, just as soon as it is dark enough to see no pun intended by that paradox—will come the finest display of fireworks we have had for many a year.

The Highland Park band wants to stay at home and play for us, but our ambitious suburb, Waukegan, wants to make a spread, and so to make sure of our fine players engaged them for all day and evening. Then the Club and Daughters did not wish to spoil everything for Waukegan and so consented to let the citizens of that town have, for this year, our choice players. We will have the band some other time, but we must and will have a Glorious Fourth of our own on the lake front, Monday night. Don't fail to be there with your family, or one or more members of some one's else family, you know, and we will make July 4, 1895, go into history with flying colors.

The funeral of Luella J., beloved wife of Henry L. Harvey, was held at their home on Wednesday from 11:30 to 12:30 a. m. The services were conducted by Rev. S. S. Clay, pastor of the Highwood M. E. church who spoke briefly upon "Seeing Through a Glass Darkly," the singing was by a mixed quartette and a solo by a friend of the deceased, after which her body was taken on the 12:45 train to one of the city cemeteries and placed to rest in a vault. Mrs. Harvey was born Jan. 13, 1873, and married Mr. Harvey Feb. 26, 1895; her health failing she went to Florida last winter, hoping that it might be restored, but she returned not much stronger. After being at home a few weeks, was stricken with typhoid fever; though her suffering was severe she stemmed the current for six weeks, fighting death away several times. Her friends had strong hopes of her recovery. However, an all wise Father took her spirit away just at the break of day June 27th. Her last wish was that she might die so that she might be free from pain. Although her husband and friends fought hard to keep her, they meekly submitted to the heavenly summons saying "Lord, thy will be done." Her father, Mr. Smith of Missouri, and many relatives and friends were in attendance. The community at large extend their sympathy to the bereaved husband and father.
