 Miss Ida Kiehe, of Chicago, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Merklin.
 Mr. and Mrs. Moon entertained a niece from Ravenswood over Sunday.
 Miss Nellie Holladay, of Chicago, is spending a few days with the Misses Alford.
 Frank Rogers and Fred Wheeler of Waukegan visited friends in the Park Tuesday.
 We are glad to see George D.
 Boulton home from a brief term at the Kenosha Sanitarium.

Mrs. M. A. Mihills is confined to her home with fever, she having been ailing for three or four weeks.
 Her many friends hope for her speedy recovery.
 Prof. Elisha Gray was in town a day or two the first of the week.
 We presume he came home for a brief respite from the famous Cape Ann mosquitoes.
 Mr. and Mrs. Charles Messer, Miss Saulkner, the Misses Chandler and Mr. Chandler of Chicago were visitors over Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Chandler.

A strictly first-class excursion to Lake Geneva, Saturday, July 9th.
 Round trip $1.00. Leaves Highland Park at 8:10 a. m. and arrives at that beautiful resort at 10:15.
 Returning leaves Williams Bay at 5:40 p. m. For tickets and information apply to agents of C. & N.
 W. Ry.
 The city attorney's youngest daughter went out a few days ago, we think, and fell asleep on the lawn, in the shade of that big pine tree, and while she slept the big tame gray squirrel came along and gnawed off her hair. At least that is the way Emma's head looks, a genuine pine apple cut.

The Second Regiment, United States engineers, is being assembled at Fort Sheridan. The two companies from Chicago, to be under the commands of A. W. Cook and Captain Hurd, went to the fort on the Fourth. Wednesday evening a train of eleven cars loaded with men arrived from points in Indiana and Ohio. Major Richard Henry Savage is in command of the camp.
 Thursday, July 14th, a union picnic will be held, under the auspices of the Sunday school of the Evangelical society, North Northfield and Deerfield. The day will be spent in games, eating home-made pies, drinking lemonade, etc., all to be retailed at reasonable prices. Everybody is invited—and the members of the above Sunday schools will do everything in their power to make the day an enjoyable one.

Clement E. Smoot, a graduate of the grammar school in the class of 1898, has gone to Salt Lake City.
 He left here last Wednesday noon and reached the capital of Mormonism Saturday noon of last week.
 We presume he will put in his spare time studying the various phases of the Latter Day Saints, socially, morally and politically, and when he enters the High School this fall he can give his associates several points on Brigham Young's kingdom and church.

C. H. White, formerly with Thomas & Co., plumbers of Chicago, has rented a store in the Basye block, which he has fitted up as a plumb-ing establishment. Mr. White comes with many gilt edged references from Chicago people whom he has done work for and the News predicts much success for him. He is now fitting up a couple of bath rooms in the C. Gregory residence down on the Sheridan Road, to whom he wishes to refer all who desire any work in his line as to his ability as a workman.

If you can improve that in poetic expression or sentiment, try your hand.
 Mrs. Leach was in the Park a few hours Wednesday. Her daughter and son are in California with friends and improving in health.
 Harvey and Paul McQuiston spent Sunday here with their parents, in the ex-Mayor Erskine residence, and left for their season at Chautauqua.
 The Brand Brothers have painted the residence of C. J. Winchester on the Sheridan Road north. It is a sort of olive green, as it looks to our color-blind eyes. It makes the house look very beautiful indeed.

Have you seen the fine lettering on the front show windows of Evans & Forrest? If not, go and look at it, a very neat, tasty job, done by Mr. Widderman, Mr. Prior's artist painter. When you have read the sign and admired the work, walk into the office and look over the magazines, fine-correspondence stationery and leave an order for your engraved wedding cards etc.
 Mr. Holden of Holden & Buzzell, was out here the Fourth looking over some of the lots belonging to the Oscar W. Barrett estate, notable the lot directly north of the new school, city school building 415 front and with a depth of 205 feet. He wants to know whether the estate had better sell, improve, or let it lie, as it has the last ten years, and appreciate in value.

Harry Barrett, son of the late Oscar W. Barrett of this city, came out from Chicago with his "best girl" on the Fourth on their wheels. They dined at Frank B. Green's "Javern," called on lots of Mr. Barrett's old-time friends and returned to Chicago on the 5:54 train, having had a delightful day. He noted the changes down at his old home, Sylvan Dells.
 Mr. Barrett is connected with the Continental National Bank.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Antisdell of the American Express Company, are spending a few days at the Exmoor Country Club house. He drove out those famous Hambletonians he had here last season. He was practically obliged to go out there to find stable room. We should not be surprised to hear that J. McGregor Adams, Judge Fullerton and Mr. Alexander had got him enamored of golf ere the season ends.

There is a little girl in this city who has real genius in the matter of abbreviating superfluous words, in fact nearly all words. Thus, she designates the days of the week as Sun.
 Mon. Tues., wagon as wag, and so on through Webster's unabridged and the Century's Dictionary of Names.
 A few days ago, she wished to address the chief justice of our police court, and instead of the circumlo-cution lingo of judicial tradition, as, "May it please your honor," she simply said, "Hib," and the thing was done, with startling brevity and emphasis. This is really a wonderful age after all.

"Ross" Fletcher covered himself with glory, a comrade writes from the front a short time since. He was on guard duty over some prisoners of war, when a couple of them tried to overpower him and escape. Instead of shooting them on the spot, according to army regulations, he used the butt of his rifle on them and they surrendered at discretion. His commanding officer, who happened to witness the transaction at some distance, complimented our young soldier boy on his bravery, his cool head and ready for an emergency, judgment and humanity. After Ross gets used to the carnage of war he will be able to handle half a dozen of those Spaniards, if Sampson and Shafter and "Fighting Bob" Evans and our gallant First, leave any prisoners alive to guard.
