A. W. Fletcher is putting in three break-waters for Arthur Orr of Evanston on the property just below Judge Fullerton's, the object being to make more beach and improve their property.

The American Institute of Normal methods opens its summer session at the Military Academy next Tuesday and will continue until August 5th.
A much larger attendance than usual is promised.

A Robertson has recently replaced his old coal wagon with a more modern, larger and up-to-date one, and bought a brand-new lumber wagon; also a safe to hold and protect his large earnings.

Let us be grateful that postage stamps sell just as cheap as before the war, and it is just as easy to run into debt now as it was then, but harder to pay our bills as it takes a two cent stamp on all our bank checks.

So many have been the calls for a boot black that John Mohr has fitted up a boot-black establishment in his tensorial parlor, where a lightning artist will:
Black your shoes and make them shine For the small sum of one dime.

Owing to a break in the engine at Highwood, which furnishes power to the street railway, the electric light company has been called upon to substitute for that station. The broken parts are now being repaired and everything will be in shape in a few days.

The county board is in session this week. Under the new law, which went into effect July 1st, the board is powerless to make any changes or to correct any erroneous assessments should there be any. Do not find fault with the board if the above should occur.

The Ladies Tournament at the Exmoor golf grounds, set for last Friday, was postponed till today and all the Club ladies are intensely interested to see who wins the handsome prize offered the best player.
There are some very expert players up there and the game will be watched with no little interest.

The office of the Electric Light company has been removed from the store of Evans Brothers up to the company's plant, in the north end of the big, brown iron covered building.
There is, or was a day or two since, no step from the sidewalk up into the office, but when once in there it is a pleasant room well lighted day and night.

Waukegan has a new bicycle ordinance by which people can ride on the sidewalks in bad weather from 6:30 to 9:30 a. m., an hour at noon, and from 5:30 to 6:30 p. m. But in order to have this privilege wheelmen must pay a license fee of $1.00 a year, and have a tag like a dog tag on his wheel. If he violates the ordinance he will be fined from $5 to $100, and forfeit his license and can't get another that year. Their lowest fine is $5.00 instead of $1.00 as ours is. The license fees go toward keeping up good bicycle tracks as Col. Davidson wants here, and it seems they have tried them and they work all right.

Mrs. Culver, Mrs. J. H. Shield's mother, has just come to the Park for her annual visit. We would like to have such good folks visit here twelve months in the year.

The World's Sunday school convention is now being held in London and our Charles H. Warren, and we presume ex-Mayor David M. Erskine and wife are there. We trust that after seeing so many of the nobility and aristocracy of Great Britain they won't be above speaking to common folks when they get home.

The concrete abutments with cut stone caps are in place on the new bridge which Mr. McGregor Adams is to present to the city. It is expected the iron will be here within ten days. It is a princely gift and one for which the Park cannot thank the generous donor too deeply. It will cost, when completed, about $2000. A. W. Fletcher has charge of the work.

Another opportunity to visit Lake Geneva, one of the prettiest of the lake resorts in the northwest, will be afforded the people of the Park, Saturday, July 23rd. The Northwestern will run another of their popular excursions to that lake, leaving here at 8:30, getting back about the same time in the evening. There is fine scenery en route. Plan to take this trip. Remember the date, Saturday July 23rd.

For the benefit of those persons who think a city marshal, is a sort of scarecrow fellow dressed in blue coat and brass buttons with a star on his left breast, just to look at but do nothing, but smile and draw his pay we will say ours is a real live man and he seems to mean business and he shows no partiality either to his wife's relations or his own. Some tigers have teeth and some don't, look out for the tiger that has teeth.

Thanksgiving services were held at the Baptist church last Sunday morning in response to President McKinley's proclamation last week.
Rev. W. M. Vines, the pastor, preached a very able and earnest sermon recounting the various things which we as a nation should be thankful for. After the sermon, Mr. Wrenn spoke a few well chosen words along the same line. Earlier in the meeting he read the president's proclamation. Prof. Wilson read a patriotic poem written by J.
J. Halsey who was a former resident of the Park. It was a very inspiring service.

A late copy of the Flint Journal, (Mich.) contains a glowing account of a reception given by Rev. and Mrs.
Henry Neill, late of this city, for the purpose of bringing out their daughters, Miss Katherine Neill and Miss Caroline Henderson, into society in a formal manner. The young ladies had just graduated from college.
The High school orchestra furnished music, young ladies from abroad aided by those of Flint contributed solos. Flowers and Japanese lanterns abounded, while refreshments served by loving hands added to the pleasure of the evening from eight till eleven o'clock.

This seems to have been a week of Sunday School picnics. The Swedish M. E. Sunday school went over to Diamond Lake Thursday with a merry crowd and passed a very pleasant day in picnic sports.
The Evangelical Sunday school of the Park and the of the same denomination at Deerfield joined in a picnic on the Lake Front. There were races and games in the afternoon which the children seemed to enjoy greatly. After the evening lunch many remained to enjoy the music furnished by the Park Brass Band.
There was a large crowd present throughout the day and all voted it a very pleasant occasion. The Lutheran church also held their picnic yesterday at Ohlwein's grove.
