Harry Barrett of the Chicago Continental National bank, and his lady friend, expect to spend Sunday next in this city.
Albert Brendel, the well known clarinet soloist, now with Clauders' orchestra, and Mrs Brendel and son are guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Brand.
The final hearing in the case of the late Johanna Noethling's estate was continued till Saturday, (tomorrow) at 10 o'clock, to look up further one claim.
When the police court informed the council that the city was out $20 because it had failed to establish a pound, the aldermen at once remedied that evil.
This afternoon at five o'clock comes the trial of the city vs Frank Haben for selling and delivering beer. It has been continued a few times, but the court proposes to have it tried now.
Don't forget if you live on the line of the Electric road, the special council meeting Tuesday evening the 16th, for your special benefit. It is not for people all over town, but for St Johns avenue folks only, as the hall is small and can't hold a mass meeting.
We understand that a couple of servant girls in one of our large family establishments, got to calling each other "endearing names," one evening recently while doing up the dinner dishes, and one hurled a glass tumbler at the other breaking the tumbler and cutting several deep gashes on the face, from which the blood flowed freely.
Charles H. Warren returned from the World's Sunday School convention in London, England, Monday. He reports a delightful time, just as we expected; having seen and met personally many of the leading Sunday school workers of the world, as well as having glimpses of English life, scenery, manners, etc., and the very best of company on the trip. Mr. Warren possesses the spirit which could enter into, and derive therefrom the full benefit of such a series of meetings.
Monday morning bright and early two cows, one Jersey and the other Holstein, were driven up to the pound, but no owner reported. The marshal got a bale of hay and fed them and at noon milked them. Long in the afternoon Judge Comstock appeared and claimed the cows; they had slipped the wire fence about his pasture. He paid the poundage in silver, 16 to 1, and went home with his kine, commending the marshal as a just officer.
Rev. Pfanstiehl preached a sermon last Sabbath at the Presbyterian church on the peculiar position, unique and epochal, in which the present war has placed the United States among the nations of the world, and the danger there is that we lay aside our individuality as a nation, losing our national personality in the body politic of Europe, which would certainly be disastrous to our future. Next Sabbath he preaches a sermon on "The Nation's Exaltation"—the general theme of his sermons for a few weeks being "Patriotism." One gratifying feature of the audiences at the Presbyterian church is the large number of men that attend the services.

Attorney Smoot did not get away last week, but he will go this week sure.
Joseph Clauder, the celebrated composer and director of Clauder's famous band, visited with Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Brand this week.
Express company money orders have to bear a revenue stamp; do post office money orders bear the same burden? If not, why not?
City Marshal Leesch is sending out dog notices. We beg leave to remind dog owners that our Simon Peter means business, because the Council says: "St' b-o-y."
Mrs. Herbert L. Bowen and her two children came down on the electric Wednesday from Waukegan for a few days visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Fletcher.
Did you notice how well the Tuesday night's rain cleaned off the new brick pavement of St Johns? If it had been crowned six inches higher in the centre it would have done very much better.
We regret to learn that our aged neighbor, W. W. Boyington, who recently celebrated his 80th birthday, is quite ill. At his age and somewhat enfeebled condition, this may mean more than it seems, though we hope for the best.
Lawyer B. W. Schumacher and Edgar M. Snow and families, are up in the northern woods fishing and are having fine times catching muscalonge, those fish noted for ability to skip the hook and line, after novices think they are caught.
Complaint has been filed with this court that the city of Highland Park, as a municipality, is not paying its share of the war taxes—a la "Cuba libre"—while the citizens have to put revenue stamps on everything. The city of course is not dodging, but why is it thus.
I hereby announce that I am a candidate for the office of county superintendent of schools, subject to the decision of Republican convention of Lake county.
