NEWSLETS.
Regular meeting of the city council Tuesday evening.
Put away your straw hat and crash suit—the summer is ended.

Brand, the photographer has been quite ill, the past week, but is better at this writing.

Mrs. Henry Kelling, after a two weeks visit with her sister, Mrs. O.
B. Brand, has returned to her home in Milwaukee.

Miss Stella Finney left Wednesday for Spooner, Wis., to be absent two or three months.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Fletcher attended the Old Settlers' Reunion, held at Grays Lake, Wednesday.

Prof. Louis E. Pope of the Lewis Institute, Chicago, who has been spending a few weeks at Ravinook, returned Wednesday.

So far as we can learn only one summer resident has returned to Chicago, and that family experienced the keenest sorrow at leaving us.

The many friends of Paul Baston, a former resident, will be pained to learn of his serious illness with typhoid fever at his home in Chicago.

Every one who could get into or hang upon a street car, or who owned or could borrow a wheel went to the military review at the Fort Tuesday afternoon.

The new city pound is now complete. The new corrugated iron roof is on so it will roast a cow or dog in the most approved fashion, hence this kind of weather is called "dog days."

Fred and Hattie Norenberg went to Naperville to spend several days with ex-pastor H. H. Thoren Ph. D.
Monday Fred went on to Thornton Park, some twenty miles southwest of Naperville.

J. M. Bilharz, who has been ill with typhoid fever for some little time, was able to be out Wednesday and boarded a trolley car and came down to the Park to see his many friends. He returned home in the evening.

Harvey and Paul McQuiston who have spent the summer at the Chautaqua Assembly grounds, New York, teaching mandolin and banjo, returned to the Park Wednesday noon, having had a most charming and successful summer.

The city marshal says that out of over 150 bona fide dog owners in town, and of these all but 35 have paid, are unusually large proportion having paid up. This is the last notice or call to the 35 delinquents to pay up, as the city pound is done and next week he will go for the unlicensed dogs.

Mrs. Attorney Smoot gave a quiet dinner Sunday afternoon to President and Mrs. George N. Carman of the Lewis Institute, Chicago, and to Principal Miss Sabra L. Sargent of Ferry Hall, Lake Forest. President Carman and the Smoots were collegians together at Ann Arbor and the renewal of the old time acquaintance was very pleasant.

Some of our many correspondents don't seem to know there is a second Hibbard family in town, hence letters etc, simply addressed "Mr. Hibbard," is as likely to go to the other man as to us. It don't trouble us any because the mistake is always promptly rectified, but still, it must be annoying to the "other fellow," to be getting our dunning letters, etc: he is not used to that kind of correspondence. Verb. Sap. Sat.

The names of the ladies of this place who went to Fort Sheridan to aid in feeding and otherwise caring for the returning soldiers, may never get into the papers, and they may never get a pension for their service, —for the deserving do not always get that. But their deeds are written on the boys' hearts. The condition of things which made such service so imperative revealed condition of our war department in Washington. You can't have an efficient service in details if incompetency rules at the head.

Butterick's Patterns for sale at Miss Erskine's.

Don't forget the excursion to Boston over the Nickel Plate Road, September 16th to 18th, inclusive, at rate of $19.00 for the round trip.
Good returning until September 30, 1898, inclusive. 80

Miss Lillian Cushman has returned from her summer vacation, and opened her studio for the out of door sketching class, so that her old pupils and those who wish to begin work, will know where to find her. She comes back greatly refreshed and with increased enthusiasm for her chosen and divinely appointed work, for we believe most fully that poets are born, and artists endowed for their work.

TUESDAY'S PARADE.

The big parade of the soldiers at Fort Sheridan, Tuesday afternoon was a very nice thing—for those folks from Chicago who came out to see it.
The thing was got up for them. No matter if the boys were tired and sick or dying, Chicago wanted something spectacular and must have it, and did have it. But like all fashionable entertainments everything was behind time, but that was nothing, indeed it was society who was late, the boys were on time and so was a hot and burning sun and they sat there in it waiting, wilting and fainting for the ceremony to begin.

Finally it begun, the boys did well in review albeit one or two were mastered by their fractious hors s and some fainted and were carried off the grounds on a litter. After a brief review just long enough to "warm up" the patient boys, came a lot of long winded, meaningless speeches, we say meaningless speeches, for they were from the boys' standpoint. It was the refinement of cruelty to make those tired, worn and malaria stricken soldiers stay in that burning sun and listen to those "buncombe" speeches.

Who was responsible for Tuesday's performance we don't know, but if that is the kind of generalship they had at the front, we wonder any of the boys are alive.
