JUDGE DOOLEY'S BILL.
At the last council meeting Justice Dooley presented two bills against the city for services in his court in the two cases of the city of Highland Park against Mr. Natofsky and Mr. Freiberg. The cases were begun in the Police Magistrate's court and taken thence to Judge Dooley's on a change of venue. The city failing to prosecute the cases when they came on for trial they were dismissed and Mr. Dooley presented his bills for his services, amounting to $1.95 in each case. The bills were each as follows:—
Docketing suit ..... $0.25 Bond and making out ..... 1.00 Entering order of discharge ..... .15 Continuance ..... .15
Entering judgment ..... .25 Entering dismissal ..... .15 Total ..... $1.95

That would make the two bills amount to $3.90. These bills were approved by Wm. Grant, of the auditing committee. Whether the other two members of that committee objected to it or not we cannot say, as we were not present at that meeting.
We were told the bills created some discussion, in or after the council meeting, and we have heard some since. In a certain sense it was a new departure on the part of the council to pass this bill and order it paid; it establishes a precedent.
Divesting ourselves, so far as we are conscious, of all feelings of personal interest in the matter, after looking at it on all sides as a pure matter of business, we think the council did right in ordering Judge Dooley's bill paid, assuming that the bill is all legal and correct. And further, we think Alderman Grant is entitled to the thanks not only of the judges, but of the public as well for putting the city on a fair, legal, honest basis in this matter.

Here are the facts in the case: The city, in due process of law, asked Judge Dooley to render a certain service and he did it. It required time and work, he gave the former and performed the latter in a prompt, thorough, business like manner. At the next council meeting he presents his bills, along with a score of other bills from as many other men, for their services of sundry kinds? The council order these other men, the city marshal, police, engineer, street workmen and all such persons who have rendered the city services paid for the same, and that is as it should be. Now why should not Judge Dooley be paid for his services? If there is any reason we should like to know what it is.

What reason is there why a man who works on the streets, or putting in sewer, or pumping the city water, should be paid, that does not hold good in case of the man who as a justice court tries cases for the city.
True these cases were dismissed, but that was not Judge Dooley's fault.
The city brought them and they went to him for trial and then the city failed to prosecute. Whether the bills were all right or not, should be settled by the city attorney, but that they should be paid if correct, we think admits of no doubt; every other employee of the city is paid for actual services.

PROF. ROLFE'S LECTURE.
Prof. Rolfe's second lecture came Tuesday evening. Emerson was his topic and as excellent as we think all his lectures have been, we regard this as the best yet delivered. He dwelt at length on Emerson's ancestry, and it was the most important and perhaps most interesting portion of the lecture. He had "generations back of him," as one described. It was the old theory that "blood tells" blood in its broadest and best sense, cultured, refined blood generation after generation. And not only that but the stern, high toned, godly Puritan blood. In this Prof. Rolfe placed the emphasis of Emerson's life and work exactly where it belonged, for had he the same genius and culture, he could not have been the man he was without his notable ancestry.

His discussion of Emerson's few years in the ministry was decidedly interesting and correct, from the Emerson standpoint. But with all his ancestral purity Emerson had very little religion in the Christian sense, in fact he rejected the great fundamental truths of Christianity, putting the Bible alongside other great books. The fact is a man can't preach the gospel who does not believe it. His estimate of Emerson's prose was very excellent and just, of his influence on the platform fifty years ago it is difficult to say too much. We still hold to the Matthew Arnold estimate of Emerson's poetry: we remember the one in the first number of the Atlantic. Still, as Prof. Rolfe said, his poems will be read by a select few in every generation. His life at Concord was rarely beautiful; we remember the old home on that mile walk from Walden Pond to the village. There was an excellent audience, nearly all the cream of our city.
