

RAVINIA.

One of the most pleasant gatherings that has taken place in Ravinia for some time occurred Thursday evening, Oct. 20, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lucas. It was the birthday of the pastor of the church, M. E. Heathcote, and it was made the occasion to welcome him back for the third year. Mr. Heathcote has endeared himself to his people, and when each one present extended to him his hand in welcome, it meant as Mr. Comstock put it, not only hand but heart.

Mr. Heathcote is a student at "farewell" speech, making mention especially of Mr. Hessler's faithfulness as a citizen, and sincerely hoping that his influence for uprightness and fidelity would not be "snowed under" in the great city to which he was going. Songs, refreshments and games cheered the hours, but the time for saying "good-bye" came all too soon. Ravinia will miss Mr. and Mrs. Hessler. The earnest, straightforward manner in which they have lived, and the efforts they have made for the interests of the village, will not be forgotten. That they may find a larger place of usefulness, and NEWSLETS.

A party of twelve people from here attended the dedication exercises at the Baptist Church at Waukegan.

Mr. H. A. Towner, who resides in the Kirk house, is contemplating a $15,000 residence which he expects to occupy by June 1st.

We received a note from Major Vail acknowledging the receipt of $10.82 from the public school for the Lafayette fund. Perceiving it was intended for Miss Kate Stoddard, the school superintendent, it was duly forwarded, after we had purloined the above fact!

Home of the Highland Park Club.

Evanston, having but begun his studies there, but he is a born preacher. Ravinia is greatly favored in having as pastor of its little church a man so highly gifted and esteemed.

Refreshments of course were served and the Guilford brothers delighted all with their music.

On Saturday evening an expression of the high regard in which Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hessler are held by the people of Ravinia took shape in a surprise party. Mr. E. J. Heathcote voiced the feelings of all in a their sterling worth appreciated is the wish of their many friends.

G. Willis Cummings is off on a well earned vacation.

Our Sunday schools are well represented at the County Sunday School Convention.

When last heard from, Judge Fullerton and his company were at the Town's Hotel at Bellows Falls, Vt. He is on his way to Chester, about a dozen miles above, at the home of his father.

Irving Palmer of the Third Cavalry is home on a 30 days furlough, his regiment being stationed at Fort Jefferson, Mo. He went up the hill at San Juan, Cuba, in the fight and was for a time in the hospital at Tampa. He expects to return to his company next Wednesday. Highland Park has worthy representatives in this war for humanity.

COW WANTED.

Fresh milch cow, mixed Jersey and Holstein preferred. Address, J. W. MAUCK, Highwood, Ill.