A POOR UNFORTUNATE.

His hoss went dead an' his mule went lame;
He lost six cows in a poker game;
A hurricane came on a summer's day,
An' carried the house whar he lived away;
Then an earthquake came when that wuz gore
An' swallowed the land that th' house stood on!
An' the tax collector, he came rouff!
An' charged him up fer the hole in the groun'!
An' the city marshal—he came in view
An' said he wanted his street tax, too!

Did he moan an' sigh? Did he set an' cry
An' cuss the hurricane sweepin' by?
Did he grieve that his ole friends failed to call
When the earthquake come an' swallowed all?
Never a word of blame he said,
With all them troubles on top his head!
Not him! * * * He climbed to the top o' the hill—

Whar standin' room wuz left him him still,
An' barin' his head, here's what he said:
"I reckon it's time to 'git up an' git;
But, Lord, I ha'n't had the measels yit!"
