

CHURCH DEDICATION.

Providence permitting, the newly erected Ebenezer Church of the Evangelical Association on Second Street will be dedicated to the service of the tribune God, Nov. 13, 1898.

The society and pastor extend a most cordial invitation to all lovers of Zion to participate in the dedicatory services.

Bishop J. J. Esher will officiate. He will most probably be assisted by Prof. F. W. Heidner.

ORDER OF SERVICES.

The program will be interspersed with music.

We were going to say something about a new ice scheme for this city, but will wait another week to let the country settle down after the election.

THE Chase & Sanborn tea and coffee folks say one pound of their fine Japan makes over 200 cups of choice tea. They don't pay 18c. per M. gallons for their water in Boston, at that rate, as we do.

The editor's wife acknowledges the receipt of a choice bunch of violets sent from Poughkeepsie, N. Y. They are very fine specimens, the leaves are something remarkable.

Rev. Charles H. Lindstrom, pastor of the Swedish Methodist church, will deliver his farewell sermon Sunday, Nov. 13, at 7:30 p. m., at the Swedish Methodist Hall, Highland Park. It is hoped readers of this item who employ Swedish help will inform them in regard to this matter. Welcome one: Welcome all!— Committee.

Mr. Bahr, our city florist, has been exhibiting flowers this week in Chicago. Tuesday he took the first prize on cyclamens, and yesterday took three first prizes on his different varieties of carnations. That is pretty well for a little suburban greenhouse. It proves Mr. Bahr's taste and skill.
