Miss Virginia Robie, an erstwhile resident of this city, has been visiting friends here for a few days.

About 85 persons are now employed at the Gray Electric factory, with more to follow as the season advances.

A little son has come to bless and make happy the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Green. He arrived Thursday.

City Marshal Leesch, with the valuable help of one of the city "boarders," cleaned up that old tank room Monday, so that is quite decent now.

Miss Mary Duggan, who cut one of her feet quite badly on a broken bottle a few ago is getting along quite well, under the direction of Dr Bergen.

Do you want to get a good milking cow, or exchange your own for a fresh one, if so see B. F. Allen about it, he can suit you and guarantees every cow sold by him.

On and after Monday, Nov. 14th, the last electric car running through to Waukegan will leave Highland Park at 10:25 p. m. A later car, leaving at 11:15 will run only to North Chicago. Last car Waukegan to Highland Park leaves Waukegan at 10:50 p. m.

Mrs. Church (nee Dot Baker) is rejoicing in the advent of a son. She is with her sister, Miss Dr. Freda Baker, at Ravenswood. This makes the fifth grandson of the late Dr. M. H. Baker, and his widow Mrs. Baker begins to feel very like a grandmother indeed.
