NEWSLETS.

Butterick patterns for sale at Miss Erskine's.

The electric railway company hope soon to have the electrically heated cars in use for the comfort of their passengers.

The Presbyterians have re-built the flying buttress walls of their church to withstand the pressure of their enlarging congregations.

The suit of Geherty vs the Gillette Bros. of Ravinia has been appealed and we shall now know whether such an attachment will stand in law. We want the case decided by a higher court.

The Presbyterian church in Waukegan has been given a $3,000 pipe organ, all set up in the church, donor's name unknown, and every body in that city is trying to guess who it is.

A prominent citizen calls the Judge's bike a "lumber wagon," because he carries thereon a grip full of summons, warrants, subpoenas, jury waivers and lots of other municipal lumber, so as to be ready in case of emergency.

The editor of the News urges all good people to attend Thanksgiving services and hear Rector Wolcott's sermon. He always has something fresh, well put and he stops when he is done. He won't offend sensible people with any wild annexation notions.

The Woman's Temple enterprise in Chicago has been abandoned by the National W. C. T. U., on a vote of 285 to 77. Any connection between this collapse and the scandalous land scheme of some of these women near Waukegan a few years ago?

It really begins to look as though our friend A. P. Dunn the newsman was going to forsake the Bachelors' Club of which he is president and leading member and get married. At least he thinks there ought to be a boarding house started here for school teachers and have it named the "School Ma'm's Rest". Perhaps he thinks there would be a seat for him at their table, and an easy chair for his special use in their drawing room. Perhaps!
