

NEWSLETS.

Rev. P. C. Wolcott was a Waukegan visitor Wednesday.

We have a first class chance for a first class young lady canvasser to some money between now and Christmas. Call on the editor of the News.

The plank crossing at Dale and Prospect, at the Bingham corner is worn through, but the street force are doing good work and will get to this one soon, we suppose.

Frank Leesch, conductor on the Northwestern, Milwaukee division, with his wife is spending a few days with his brother Simon P. Leesch, our city marshal. They came out Wednesday evening to the masquerade ball.

The big steel plate tank for the new natatorium at the Military Academy, is being put in position. The big steel plates are so large that they build the tank on its heavy brick foundations first and then erect the building about and over it. It is a huge affair.

Owing to inclement weather the entertainment for benefit of the Baptist church, last night, was not as well attended as was expected. The solos by Mr. Waterous deserve special mention. The recitations by Mr. Hoffenheimer and the sleight of hand by Charles Warren was enjoyed by all who attended.
