The subject of Rev. Pfanstiehl's sermon next Sabbath will be The problem of the "Small Boy." A subject of interest to parents, especially.

Waukegan has a regular building boom. We wish the electric road would bring some of it down here, when passenger traffic is a bit light. We would like to see how it looks.

Thanksgiving services will this year be held in the Presbyterian Church, when the Rev. Mr. Wolcott of the Episcopal Church will preach. It is hoped that all the people will join in this worship. The service will begin at 10:45 a. m.

We commend the street and alley committee for planning to replace the lightning bug incandescent at the junction of Hazel and Dale, by the bridge near Frank C. Brown's corner, with the old arc light for which we "old settlers" paid our hard cash several years ago. We say this not on our own account, for while it is a benefit to us, we run our own private bridge light. But that Hazel avenue bridge, and the C. C. Yoe mansion made that light peculiarly a necessity and we thank the committee for ordering it to be restored and Mr. Yoe will when he returns next season.
