

Bishop McLaren, with his family came out from Chicago yesterday and took up his residence for the winter in the Babcock house. It was his intention to settle here a month ago but the illness of his youngest daughter in Washington delayed his plans. She is now quite recovered and is here with her mother.

There was a quiet wedding on Thursday noon at the residence of Captain Webster at Fort Sheridan. The bride was Miss Lucile Sibley, daughter of Captain Sibley of the 2nd, Cavalry, and niece of Mrs. Webster, and the groom, Lieutenant Christian also of the 2nd, Cavalry. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Wolcott and the only guests were the relatives of the young couple. The regimental orchestra played during the ceremony and a wedding breakfast followed. After which the bride and groom took the train for Chicago where they make a short stay before going south.
