

THE RUTTER-HILL WEDDING.

At noon on Wednesday, December 7th, in Trinity Church, Miss Mabel Hill, daughter of Judge Lysander Hill, was married to Mr. Lynn Rutter, eldest son of Mr. David Rutter of Chicago. The wedding, though a quiet one, was one of the prettiest ever seen in Highland Park. The church was elaborately decorated with palms and holly, and fragrant with lilies and white carnations.

The bride was gowned in white satin and point lace, with train and veil, and walked up the aisle upon her father's arm to the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march, while Miss Ethel Turnley, the groom's cousin, preceded her as maid-of-honor, clad in a gown of white organdy over silk and a Gainsborough hat of black velvet. Both ladies looked as though they might have stepped out of some beautiful picture.

The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. W. M. Rutter, as best man, while a third brother, with Mr. Charles Hill, the bride's brother, Mr. George Dyer and Mr. Milton Turnley Lightner, acted as ushers. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Bixby of Chicago, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Wolcott, and nothing occurred to mar its solemnity and impressiveness. The church was filled with the friends and relatives of the young couple, most of them coming from Chicago and more distant cities.

After the ceremony there was a reception and breakfast for the visiting friends at the house, after which the party dispersed, and the newly married pair departed to spend their honey-moon in a warmer clime. Upon their return, after the holidays, they will live in the house on Park avenue rented from Mrs. Gray.

"HOOKS AND LADDERS."

There was a special meeting of the Hook and Ladder company at the city hall, Monday evening to elect officers for the year 1899. Chief Andrew Bock called the meeting to order. Barney Steffens applied for membership and was received by a vote of the company. A motion was made to re-elect D. P. Sheahen foreman, which was carried with great enthusiasm. In the same way John Rudolph was made assistant foreman. Barney Steffens was elected secretary and John Rudolph treasurer. It was voted to purchase caps and at 8:30, after a pleasant session, the meeting adjourned.
