Butterick patterns for sale at Miss Erskine's.

Miss Kreger is spending a few days in town.

That bulbous plant got down to zero Thursday morning.

Fred Schumacher is taking orders now for Flows and Allegretti candy.

Harvey and Paul McQuiston spent Sunday with friends in this city.

These cold mornings stop in at Schumacher's and get a drink of hot soda.

Schumacher's anti-headache powders never fail to stop headache. A trial will convince you.

W. W. Alford of Downers Grove visited with his neices, the Misses Alford, one day this week.

Mrs. Harry Clampitt and Miss Jessie Raffin left Tuesday for Crystal Lake, Wis., on a visit to Dr. and Mrs. H. D. Hull.

A. Robertson's advertisement was left out of our last issue through an oversight. Mr. Robertson is a hustler, up-to-date, and believes in the efficacy of judicious advertising.

The Evangelical church cleared $37. on their lecture, instead of $20. as was stated in the NEWS of last week. The one in Deerfield netted the organization of that place $17. over and above expenses.

There was a very handsome reception given by the cadets at the Academy Saturday evening. The attendance was very large, representing society people in the Park pretty generally. The cadets give some sort of an entertainment now every Saturday evening, which are keenly anticipated by the favored public.

The managers of Fort Sheridan Park announce roller or cycle skating, commencing Thursday evening, Dec. 15th, also that no alcoholic beverages and improper associations will be tolerated about the grounds or pavilion. The foregoing will have a tendency to attract the better class of our citizens, and as roller skating is a popular, healthful and exhilarating exercise, it will afford the patrons much amusement and the owners much pecuniary profit.
