

LUNCHEON AND DANCE.

Mrs. Albert Paul Smith gave a Luncheon and Dance Tuesday afternoon from 12:30 to 4, to her son Edward Smith and his cousin, Holart Moore. A party of seventy young people came out from Chicago in special passenger cars on the Milwaukee Road.

The house was beautifully decorated and the young people had a delightful time. It was very kind of Mrs. Smith not only to provide a charming social afternoon for these young people, but to do so on such a beautiful winter's day when they could have a genuine country sleigh ride as well as a dance, and they enjoyed it very much, for a happier lot we not often see. But that is characteristic of Mrs. Smith's hospitality and the good people of the Park recognize as one important aim of their lives the duty of making others happy.

DELIGHTFUL DANCING PARTY.

At the rooms of the Highland Park Club last Wednesday evening, Dec. 28th, Mrs. T. T. Watson gave a dancing party in honor of her daughter, Miss Alice. The house party guests were:

Misses Dunham	Mr. Dunham
Miss Waller	Mr. Waller

The rooms were beautifully decorated with holly and mistletoe. Pink was the prevailing color.

The following poured:

Miss Chandler	Mrs. Paul Smith
Mrs. Ford Hall	Mrs. C. W. Kirk

It was a delightful affair and one which will long linger in the memory of those who were present.

OSSOLI CLUB.

The Ossoli Club held its fifth regular meeting on Thursday afternoon Dec. 15th, at half past three o'clock, in the Highland Park Club House.

Miss Douglas read a paper on "Gladstone" which was most highly appreciated and enjoyed. Mr. Frank Anderson sang "A Dream of Paradise," accompanied by Mrs. Charles Everett.

Tea was served by Miss Miner and Miss Prall.

Carleton Vail, of Cornell University, is spending the holiday vacation at his home in this city.
