

A QUIET WEDDING.

On Wednesday afternoon a quiet and unheralded wedding occurred at St Mary's church in this city. The parties to the life compact were Mr. Charles H. Carey, manager of Fort Sheridan Park, and Miss Winnie Cummings, daughter of Mr. John Cummings of Highland Park.

The wedding party consisting of Miss Cummings and her sister, Mrs. D. Murphy of Highwood, Miss Rose Fagan, the bridesmaid. Mr. Carey and his best man, Mr. J. W. Ingram, left the bride's home early in the afternoon proceeding directly to the church where Father Madden awaited them. The edifice was handsomely decorated and the affair passed off in the most happy manner.

Subsequent to the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Carey and their party proceeded to the parochial residence where they remained for some time, after which they drove to their new home in Fort Sheridan Park. This happy event is said to "have" been scheduled to occur during the holidays, but was postponed owing to the illness of Mr. Carey. To all but the most intimate friends of Mr. and Mrs. Carey the event comes as a complete surprise, which will in no manner restrict the warmth of the congratulations they are receiving.
