

LADIES OF THE MACCABEES.

An event which will long live in the memory of those who attended was the installation of officers, entertainment and dance of the Ladies of the Macabees at Masonic hall Tuesday evening. It was largely attended, there being as many as the hall could comfortably accommodate.

Quite a number from out of town were present, among them Mrs. C. M. Cutting, lady commander of the Lake Forest Hive, accompanied by the guards or installing team of that place, who assisted in the work of installation; Deputy Supreme Commander Mrs. Adelaide Connors of Waukegan, the installing officer, Mrs. May A. C. Baikie, supreme mistress at arms of the Supreme Hive, who had charge of the exercises.

Following are the officers: Mrs. Prior, lady commander; Mrs. Patchen, past commander; Mrs. Aldridge, lieut. commander; Miss N. Morrison, record keeper; Miss Mollie McCallrey, finance keeper; Mrs. Guilford, chaplain; Mrs. Obee, sergeant-at-arms; Mrs. Dooley, mistress at arms; Mrs. Runey, sentinel; Miss Clara Augustine, picket.

After the installation came a program of much artistic merit, as follows: Instrumental duet, by Mrs. Patchen and Miss Aldridge; vocal solo, Mr. Guilford; violin solo, H. M. Prior; vocal solo, Miss Nettie Morrison; piano solo, Miss Prior of Evanston. Then came supper, followed by dancing.

It was a most delightful evening and the members of the lodge wish to express their thanks to the visiting officers for their assistance in making the affair the success which it was.
